BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
QUEBEC, Nov. 6.—The Canadian Northern Royal Mail steamer Royal George, with 981 passengers on board, grounded on the rocks during a fog in the St. Lawrence River last night and is reported in a position difficult of access. Particulars meagre.
The vessel went aground about a mile east of Point St. Laurent, Island of Orleans, ten miles below Quebec. The wrecking steamer Lord Strathcona and two tugs have been sent to the Royal George's assistance. The Royal George is reported to be on the north side of the south channel.
The Royal George left Quebec late yesterday morning for Quebec short-ly (check this afternoon). She was not to be going at full speed when she met with the accident. She was on her way from Montreal, Sag., and was due in Montreal tomorrow.
The wrecking steamer is in a position of great alarm and news of the disaster is slow in reaching Quebec.

President Taft is cheerful despite the landslide which engulfed the Party in Ohio.
[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
CINCINNATI, Nov. 6.—Returns from 2588 precincts of the 5211 in Ohio, gives:
Taft, 122,181; Wilson, 195,554; Roosevelt, 140,385. All of the twenty-four electoral votes, all of the important States offices, the State Legislature and all but two or three of its Representatives in the House of Representatives went into the Democratic column.
President Taft carried his home city, Cincinnati, by a same majority. Nicholas Longworth, Col. Roosevelt-in-law, was re-elected by a small majority.
Even in the moments when it became apparent that Gov. Wilson was going to sweep the country, President Taft did not forget his philosophy and good humor.
Here is a story of how the President looked at the situation at that time, told by a friend today:
"We've got to find some comfort in this," the President is reported to have said. "I'll be very glad to ride down Pennsylvania avenue with Gov. Wilson."
The President was up early today. He took breakfast at the home of his brother and then started for the Cincinnati Country Club to play golf.

BIRMINGHAM (Ala.) Nov. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Bills have been drafted and others will be drafted, looking toward a general revision of the tariff downward. These bills are to be considered at a special session of Congress, expected to be called next spring.
Just as soon as Gov. Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey has been inaugurated President, March 4 next, he will have under consideration a special session of Congress called by President Wilson and that by that time tariff bills will have been prepared, he would not deny. Congressman Underwood, when asked about the tariff, said:
"It is true that there are some bills on tariff revision under consideration but it would not be becoming in me to give out any interview about them. That the people expect action on the tariff question, and early action, none can gainsay. The party at no time eliminated the tariff proposition and it is up to the party to act."
The special session of Congress shortly after Gov. Wilson has been inaugurated is the program and I have no reason for doubting that will be the course pursued."

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Gen. Miles, formerly chief of staff of the United States Army, was seen busily bustling around Democratic headquarters. He said: "I am here to implore Wilson to 'institute a reform much needed at the White House.'"
"What is that General?" asked a reporter.
"The first thing to be done is to chuck those plaques and stuffed animals out of the White House," declared the General.
It was presumed that the General referred to certain trophies of the African game trails brought back by a faunal naturalist who has retired to private life on two or three occasions—the most recent being yesterday.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Socialists who threw up their hands in advance declared that a great step in advance was made when Victor Berger of Milwaukee was elected to Congress, are in the dumps over the reversal of form shown by Berger and the party yesterday.
Milwaukee was not the only center which administered a black eye to the hopes of the followers of the red flag. Schenectady, N. Y., found that since the last election there it had had enough of the practical workings of socialist government. The voters repudiated the position they had previously taken and sent all the socialist candidates down to defeat.
Milwaukee did not confine its rebuke to Mr. Berger. The electorate of the Wisconsin metropolis, which has been the boasted stronghold of the socialists, drew itself together, put aside the petty jealousies that hitherto contributed to the success of the reds, and proceeded to place all the socialist local candidates in the discard.
The defeat of Mr. Berger is a bitter blow. On him the party had set its hopes. It believed he was going to acquire a wholesome fame in Washington and thereby advance the interests of the organization all over the country. Two years of office for him seems to have been quite enough for the Wisconsin center of industry, hence his relegation to private life when he was living plans to promote the radical doctrine of Gene Debs.
Practically the whole of the Socialist vote came from industrial centers where there is a large foreign population—a population that has not been in the country long enough to learn the spirit of its institutions or to cherish any love for its traditions.
FARMERS ARE SOUND.
In the smaller cities and on the farms all over the nation, Socialism made no progress. The farmer showed that he is not ready to lend a helping hand to the programme marked by Debs in a speech in Topeka, Kan., whereby the farms of the nation were to be confiscated or occupied by condemnation, purchase or force for community rather than individual exploitation.
Even in the industrial centers as a rule the vote of the Socialists was founded on local spite. This was especially true where the percentage of the vote was large. In almost every case it needed no keen powers of analysis to discover the selfish impulses behind the voting.
Chicago Socialists are doing their best tonight to extract grains of comfort from the results of yesterday, but the defeat of Mr. Berger overshadowed all. Statisticians of the party, although having scarcely any data at hand to justify their estimates, are giving out statements that the total vote of the party is considerably above that of four years ago.
They are laying claim to from two to seven Representatives in Congress. The only man they name in this connection is J. Stitt Wilson of Los Angeles and they grant that his success is still a matter of doubt.
SPITE VOTE.
William Cunniff, Socialist candidate for State's Attorney of Cook county, received a big vote, running a few thousand behind the Democratic victor, Mackay Hoyne. The Socialist statisticians endeavor to interpret this vote as an expression of Socialist sentiment. On the contrary, it is as plain as day that it was a spite vote aimed at the newspapers of Chicago for daring to run their plans in their own way.
Named in His Honor.
EL PASO (Tex.) Nov. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Roosevelt failed yesterday to carry Roosevelt county, N. M., named in his honor.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—Woodrow Wilson's apparent plurality of 12,000 divided rapidly this afternoon as belated returns came in from the Progressive strongholds of the southern part of the State.
With about 800 precincts yet to hear from Wilson's plurality in California over Roosevelt tonight is 5333. This margin, however, accounts for all except fifty precincts of Los Angeles county. The vote also includes the complete poll of Alameda county, where Roosevelt was given a plurality of 7000 and of Santa Clara, Riverside and Santa Barbara counties. Returns from Sonoma and Sutter counties, which are claimed by both parties, are yet to come in and they may change the figures quite materially. On the other hand, only partial returns have been received from Butte, Fresno, Mendocino, Monterey and Yuba counties, all of which appear to be giving the Democratic Presidential candidate substantial pluralities.
VOTE FOR DEBS.
The vote for Debs, Socialist candidate, got well above the 60,000 mark.

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 6.—[Special Dispatch.] The net results of the general election held Tuesday are staggering even to the most sanguine of Democrats. The result includes the election of Wilson and Marshall, the Democratic candidates for President and Vice-President, by the largest electoral majority ever returned, the final figures being: Wilson, 415; Roosevelt, 65; Taft, 12, with two States, Kansas and Illinois, still in doubt, with thirty-nine electoral votes.

ATLANTIC CITY (N. J.) Nov. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] This resort has a mystery. It was given to the local department of the United States Weather Bureau this afternoon that the officials can make nothing of it.
Several persons who live in the district between Kentucky avenue and the southern extremity of the island tell of an experience between 3:30 and 4:30 o'clock this afternoon which leads them to believe that a mild form of earthquake centered itself about this part of the shore.
Guests and employees in two houses and cottage residents say they felt a distinct shock. Mrs. P. Gilberston, Jr., was awakened from a nap at the Hotel Deville; George Warren of Philadelphia and other guests testified to the realness of what they called the quake. Chris Raleigh, at the Hotel Chelsea, and Mrs. William Whitaker of Margate City were others who experienced the "shock."
Just what it was, the population is trying to find out. The earthquake theory is nullified by the fact that no registration was made on instruments at Washington. Director Jenkins of the Weather Bureau advances the theory that the settling of strata on the island is responsible.

HIS PLURALITY OVER A MILLION.

Wilson's Victory Is Like Taft's Four Years Ago.

Roosevelt's Fear That May Lose Sucker State.

"Bleeding" Kansas Is Also Debatable Ground.

BY A. M. EVANS.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The question of the popular vote received by the three candidates for the Presidency in the final returns of the election of 1912, is the feature of the most interest in the final returns. A few doubtful States, the returns from which fluctuated, kept the tables of the Electoral College vote shifting until, without affecting the result appreciably, the unsettled phase of the situation that drew attention to the relative strength of the candidates, developed on the popular vote and the manner in which Taft and Roosevelt ran in States carried by Wilson, the question of who is second by States.

POPULAR PLURALITY.

From the incomplete figures, it appears that although Wilson and Marshall rode in on a landslide and that they piled up more electoral votes than ever went to a President before, the popular plurality will not be as large as it may be in the neighborhood of the plurality given President Taft four years ago, 1,549,000.

With three States missing and several States represented by estimates instead of final figures, Wilson is given a total plurality of 1,335,000 in the States he has carried. Roosevelt carried his States by an aggregate plurality of 1,135,000, while Taft's plurality in the States of Ohio, Utah, Wyoming and Idaho are estimated at 800,000.

"BLEEDING" KANSAS.

Kansas, which hung in the balance for twenty-four hours after the polls closed, now appears to have been carried by Wilson. The first returns gave it to Roosevelt, but complete figures indicate Wilson will swing it by 15,000 votes. Seven of the States have "bleeding" Kansas, experienced an election in which so many uncertainties clustered around the result, it fluctuated as the returns came in, and until the final figures are complete, the matter of plurality will be in doubt. All indications, however, are that Wilson has carried the State by a comfortable margin.

DEBATABLE GROUND.

Illinois still is not an absolute certainty for Roosevelt, according to Charles Boeschenstein, Democratic national committeeman, who insists that many of the Illinois pluralities reported from strong Democratic counties down-State were pluralities of Wilson over Taft instead of Wilson over Roosevelt. In some of these counties Taft ran in second place, and Boeschenstein has prepared estimates indicating that Illinois is debatable ground until final figures come in from the down-State regions.

As the candidates now stand in the Electoral College, Wilson has carried thirty-nine of the forty-eight States and has a total electoral vote of 414 or 148 more than the required majority of 264.

ROOSEVELT'S ASSORTMENT.

Roosevelt has carried Illinois, Michigan, Pennsylvania, South Dakota and Washington, according to the incomplete figures, with a total of 94 votes.

FOR TAFT.

Taft has Utah, Wyoming and Idaho, with eleven votes. A shade of doubt, however, still clings to the outcome in Wyoming and Idaho. The returns substantiate the forecast of the Los Angeles Times last Sunday that Wilson would have enough electoral votes to elect himself President, and that the eastern States or the really debatable territory in the West.

NEW ENGLAND.

When the complete figures from the East came in today, Wilson clinched his hold on New England. He carried each of the six New England States, even rock-ribbed Vermont, which has been by 4900. Since the foundation of the Republican party, New Hampshire and Rhode Island, New Hampshire and Rhode Island.

NEW YORK.

The returns from New York at 9 o'clock tonight gave Wilson a plurality of practically an even 200,000 votes over Taft and gave Taft a lead of 50,000 over Roosevelt. Wilson's plurality is the greatest New York has ever given a Democratic Presidential candidate. Tuesday was the first time that the voters outside of the metropolitan districts have given a plurality for a Democrat for President.

WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE.

Phases of the election that took more definite shape during the day were the success of woman suffrage in four of the five States where the people voted upon constitutional amendments. In Kansas, Arizona and Michigan the victory of the women suffragists was complete, while late returns from Oregon indicate that the suffragists won there, also. From Wisconsin came reports showing the decisive defeat of the equal suffrage proposal.

GOVERNORSHIP FIGHTS.

The returns on the Governorship fights in the several States also took on more definite shape although few of them were in doubt Tuesday night. Twenty-nine States elected Governors. In these the Democrats held what States they formerly had and gained four States—Illinois, Missouri, Nebraska and New Jersey, where a Democrat succeeds President-elect Wilson.

More complete returns from doubtful States increased Wilson's lead tonight. Illinois, which has been reported the progress of the State, after hanging in the balance for hours, has apparently given Wilson its twenty-nine electoral votes, although the returns are still so incomplete that the ultimate results is in doubt.

Minnesota, which was given to Wilson by all reports received up to 9 o'clock last night, became doubtful at midnight, and shortly afterwards appeared to have been carried by Roosevelt. Kansas, which had been given a Roosevelt plurality on the early returns, swung to Wilson when more complete figures came in.

INTEREST CENTERS IN NEW CONGRESS.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Only the uncertainty of a few close States, whose electoral votes in no way can affect the election of Wilson and Marshall, speculation over the popular vote of the three Presidential candidates, and the completion of Legislatures that will name United States Senators held interest tonight in the final returns of yesterday's general election.

The total of the Republican electoral column apparently was fixed with the twelve votes of Idaho, Utah and Vermont; but the footing of the Wilson and Roosevelt columns fluctuated alternately during the day and night as late returns from Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, South Dakota and Wyoming showed indications of changing results accepted last night.

WILSON'S LEAD.

On the basis of the latest returns early in the evening, with the vote of Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, South Dakota and Wyoming placed in the "doubtful" column, President-elect Wilson had 287 certain votes in the Electoral College, Roosevelt 93 and Taft 12. All of the doubtful States, except South Dakota, gave more or less certain indications during the day of landing in the Wilson column; while South Dakota's returns showed a general trend toward Roosevelt.

A hypothesis of the general election that became known today was the success of woman's suffrage in four of the five States where constitutional amendments were submitted to the people. The victory of the women suffragists was complete in Arizona, Kansas and Michigan, late returns from Oregon indicated they had succeeded there, while from Wisconsin came reports showing the decisive defeat of the equal suffrage proposal.

Estimates of the popular vote polled by Gov. Wilson ranged through many millions during the day. It was found impossible to compute with accuracy the popular vote of any of the Presidential candidates and it will be a number of days before the counting of the three-cornered contest in the different States is completed.

THE MAJORITY QUESTION.

Assessments were made today from several quarters where an effort had been made to gather preliminary popular vote figures that Gov. Wilson had not secured a majority of the votes cast throughout the country. Estimates ranged from a small majority of all votes to figures nearly 1,000,000 below a majority.

There were many surprises throughout the day and night. Early in the day New Hampshire, first credited to Roosevelt, went into the Wilson column with a majority of about 15,000 for the Democratic candidate. Returns from Idaho, which came in scattering, favoring in the day, favored Wilson so strongly as to create the belief that it would give him his third State to go certainly for President Taft.

ROOSEVELT'S SCARE.

The Roosevelt forces, watching the returns from the States, were from Illinois suffered a scare, as the Democratic districts reduced Col. Roosevelt's plurality from Cook county until it promised to disappear. Late in the day a complete report from Cook county again swelled the Roosevelt majority in the State and seemingly made certain the control of Illinois twenty-nine votes by the Progressive candidate. Kansas, which had been conceded to Roosevelt, was again in the balance until the preliminary returns came in, gradually slipped back during the day until it had become a question tonight whether Wilson or Roosevelt would control its ten votes. Gov. Wilson had the better of the situation in Iowa and Michigan, where the counting was in progress with only a narrow margin between the candidates. While South Dakota apparently had turned toward Roosevelt on the later returns.

Whether the Democrats in the widespread victories of Tuesday have secured control of the United States Senate will not be settled for a day or two. In many States where counting was going on tonight the control of the Legislatures is in doubt.

NEW MEXICO.

ALBUQUERQUE (N. M.) Nov. 6.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] With virtually complete returns from Tuesday's election in New Mexico, Wilson has carried the State by a plurality of 3000. H. B. Ferguson, Democrat, was re-elected to Congress. The half-million State bond issue for good roads carried and the amendment to the Constitution repealing the language qualification clause was defeated. The estimated total vote in the State for the three Presidential candidates was: Wilson, 11,154; Taft, 11,254; and Roosevelt, 7500.

WYOMING.

CHEYENNE (Wyo.) Nov. 6.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] The contest to elect legislators to select United States Senators is still undecided. Republicans claim the election of sufficient legislators to re-elect Senator Francis E. Warren by a majority of five on joint ballot. The Democrats claim the election of a sufficient number to elect John B. Kendrick by the same majority. The re-election of Congressman Frank Mondell, Republican, is conceded by Democratic State Chairman Hopkins. One hundred and sixty-one out of a total of 472 precincts in the State give Taft 4074, Wilson 4273, Roosevelt 2133. On this basis Wilson has carried the State by about 800 votes.

COLORADO.

DENVER (Colo.) Nov. 6.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] A Democratic Presidential plurality of 47,000 in Colorado is predicted tonight, 7200, complete returns thus far received. Complete returns from 345 precincts, including 104 from Denver, give Wilson 31,555; Taft 14,535; Roosevelt 19,860. The rest of the 1412 precincts cast an equally heavy vote and show the same preferences, the total vote for the State will be 270,000 with a plurality for Wilson over Roosevelt of 47,000 and over Taft of 70,000.

Immediately before the election, managers of all political parties agreed that the vote would be in the neighborhood of 270,000.

For Governor, the figures from 309 precincts, including 87 from Denver, give: Ammons (Dem.) 24,634; Costigan (Prog.) 13,888; Parks (Rep.) 12,121.

George J. Kindel, Democrat in the First District, and H. H. Seidmridge, (Dem.) in the Second District, are elected to Congress (Rep.) and will control the next Legislature, which will elect two United States Senators. Gov. John P. Shafroth and Charles S. Thomas won in the preferential vote for the Senate seats.

State-wide prohibition, voted upon as an initiative in amending the Constitution, was defeated by a good majority.

IDAHO.

BOISE (Idaho) Nov. 6.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] A flurry was caused today in political circles by the noon-day declaration of the Progressive State chairman that Roosevelt might carry Idaho. So far the returns tabulated from 165 precincts in all parts of the State give Taft 15,745, Wilson 11,745, and Roosevelt 4522. Debs had a large vote in some sections and carried several precincts in the north. The Governorship is debatable. Hawley (Dem.) for re-election has 11,595 on the face of the returns, but he has a number of days before the election. Martin (Prog.) is third, with 4995. Republican Legislature candidates ran ahead of their tickets in many counties and it is conceded that the popularity of Senator Borah, who is up for re-election, contributed to this.

MONTANA.

HELENA (Mont.) Nov. 6.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] A Democratic and Progressive conceded today that Woodrow Wilson had carried Montana by a big margin. That J. T. Walsh (Dem.) had been the voters' choice for United States Senator, and that Thomas Stout (Dem.) had been elected Congressman-at-large, and S. V. Stewart (Dem.) Governor.

Republicans still refuse to concede the election of John M. Evans as Congressman. They hope that delayed returns will overcome the present lead of the Democratic candidate and give the office to Charles N. Dwyer.

Democrats claim Wilson's plurality will exceed 10,000.

UTAH.

SALT LAKE CITY (Utah) Nov. 6.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] Only thirteen of the twenty-seven counties of Utah have sent returns to Salt Lake City and not one of these has made a complete report, but it is evident from the returns that the Democrats still control the State; that Wilson will run ahead of Roosevelt and that Congressman Howell will go back to Washington. Jacob Johnson, his running mate, is only a few score votes ahead of Thomas (Dem.) in Salt Lake County, but they made no great gains in the cities.

NEEDHAM CONCEDES DEFEAT.

FRESNO, Nov. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Late returns here tonight indicate that Wilson will carry Fresno city and county by a small majority. All of the constitutional amendments with the exception of the first and second were defeated by overwhelming majorities. One hundred and thirty-four complete precincts out of 141 in county and city give a vote of 5695 against annexation and a vote of 2115 in favor of the Statehood. The same number of precincts gives Church for Congress from the seventh District 7848 and Congressman Needham 7582. Church leads in the Congressional district by a margin of 300 and Needham contest telegraphed his congratulations to Fresno District Attorney.

The fight here for the superior judgeship has been one of the hardest fought battles and late returns indicate that Austin (Rep.) and Church (Dem.) have been elected. The race track bill, Warlow and Church have been neck and neck for second place and Brigham Young for third. There is a good chance of winning, as the rear precincts in Coalinga, his stronghold, are yet to be heard from. The vote stands: Austin, 11,544; Church, 7793; Warlow, 7684; and Brigham, 7765.

Assemblymen: The Republican ticket, from the Fifty-first District will be elected by a big majority over Henry (Rep.) and the Fifty-second District Chandler (Rep.) leads Kerr (Dem.) by 846. In the Fifty-second Carr (Rep.) leads Jones (Dem.) by 121. Supervisors Huffman and Collins (Dem.) are elected, and Supervisor Millett (Rep.)

Interest in the suffrage amendment.

Equal suffrage is making gains and the indications are that the measure will carry.

An amendment to abolish hanging in this State has been defeated in all probability. Single tax was badly defeated. Incomplete returns from 133 precincts in Oregon outside of Multnomah county give: Roosevelt, 57; Taft, 659; Wilson, 4485; Wilson, 5459; Chaffin, 331; Debs, 68.

Surge.

WOMEN WIN TWO STATES AND PROBABLY FOUR.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Women suffrage also had its victories Tuesday, the cause winning in at least two of the five States where it was an issue and the women exerting a powerful influence upon issues in States and cities where they already have the full ballot or limited voting privileges.

Greater interest was shown in Arizona where in every one of the larger towns of the State a substantial majority was returned.

CHICAGO.

In Chicago women have limited voting privileges, but they brought tremendous influence to bear upon the male voters. The result was the defeat of Pete Barten, president of the county board, who has been denounced by every woman's club and society in the city and county. The women made him an issue and while his ticket marched to victory by approximately 125,000, he was shunted into the discard by a plurality of 13,000.

WISCONSIN.

In Wisconsin, the women were defeated. They expected a reversal to the defeat of Pete Barten, president of the county board, who has been denounced by every woman's club and society in the city and county. The women made him an issue and while his ticket marched to victory by approximately 125,000, he was shunted into the discard by a plurality of 13,000.

MILWAUKEE (Wis.) Nov. 6.—Scattered returns on the woman's suffrage amendment show that the proposition was overwhelmingly defeated in Wisconsin.

The Occurrence.

SENATE STILL IS DOUBTFUL.Bourbon Calculations Upset
by Late Returns.The Virginia Swings Back to Republicanism.Progressives Hold Balance in Sucker State.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Despite the Wilson landslide, it was doubtful at a late hour last night that the Democrats have obtained control of the United States Senate.

As the returns filtered in from dozens of States it became evident that while Wilson carried the States he did not succeed in pulling with him a sufficient number of Democratic members of the Legislature to secure the election of the Democratic majority. The Democrats are claiming victory in a number of States from which complete returns have only been received. In some instances the Progressives and Socialists control the situation.

ILLINOIS.
In Illinois the latest indications were that unless Gov. Deneen calls a special session of the present Legislature to elect a successor to Wilson, Lermer, that the Progressives will hold the balance of power in the new Legislature.

COLORADO.
In Colorado it is claimed by the Democrats that the two Democratic candidates from that State would be elected if the Wilson vote was split, but this is not conceded.

WEST VIRGINIA.
The biggest upset the Democrats resented in the Senatorial situation was the report from West Virginia that the State would probably be transferred from the Democratic to the Republican column. The Democrats had counted confidently on electing a Democratic Legislature. Returns indicate, however, that the Republicans have secured control of it. This means that Senator Charles W. Watson will be re-elected. The Democrats triumphed in New Jersey, Gov. Wilson's home State, and will elect a Democratic colleague for Senator Martins. Senator Bryan, the incumbent, is one of President Taft's closest advisers. It is believed that Senator Bridges will be succeeded by William Hughes, who has represented the Sixth District of New Jersey in the lower house of Congress since 1904.

IDAHO.
It is probable that two Republican Senators have been elected from Idaho. One of these is Senator Wilson. The other Senator will be in place made vacant by the death of W. E. Borah.

KANSAS.
Senator, Gov. W. R. Stubbs. Progressive and Republican, is said to be leading in the race, while reports from Kansas indicate that Thomas H. Lincoln is leading Senator Joseph M.
Dodge. The Democrats concede that the Legislature of Massachusetts has elected a Republican Senator and that a Republican Senator will be elected to Senator
Dodge's seat.

RHODE ISLAND.
While Maine returns show the election of a Republican Legislature which will elect a Republican Senator to succeed George P. Wetmore, who is not standing for re-election.

TENNESSEE.
Returns are still in the doubtful stage as far as the completion of the Legislature goes. Returns from half of the ninety-six counties, however, indicate that it may be Republican.

MICHIGAN.
In Michigan it was practically certain that the Republicans will win a position to return William A.
Dodge to the Senate.

WYOMING.
Returns from three counties missing.
Returns from Wyoming show that E. Warren, the Republican incumbent, has thirty-five votes elected while his Democratic opponent has thirty-four votes. Three counties are yet to be heard from.

MINNESOTA.
Returns from Minnesota show Senator Knute Nelson has been re-elected.

NEVADA.
Returns from Nevada show the incumbent, the late George S.
Bryant, is being re-elected.
Results of the fight of Senator George William C. Kennel, who will not be re-elected

CONGRESSIONAL TABLE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—Returns up to 8 a. m. indicate the political complexion of the House of Representatives of the Sixty-third Congress will be as follows:

By Small Plurality.

with tonight's returns. In Los Angeles county alone Debs polled more than 14,000 votes. San Francisco county being a close second with 12,415. In many counties no votes were reported for Taft and in only one county, Santa Clara, did his vote get into three figures. The Prohibitionists also made a respectable showing, 729 votes for Chaffin being so far recorded.

FIRST DISTRICT.

The result in the First Congressional District seems to be still in doubt, but with the advantage tonight for the first time decidedly in favor of William Kent, Progressive and incumbent. With nearly half of the precincts heard from Kent has a plurality of 151 votes over Zumwalt, Democratic. Bondsman and Suter counties are yet to be heard from and the Kent adherents assert this vote will materially increase Kent's plurality.

OTHER DISTRICTS.

In the Sixth District, Knowland, Republican, has certainly been re-elected, although Ritt Wilson, Socialist, made a remarkable run against him.

The seat of Needham, Republican, in the Seventh District, appears to be in danger. If indeed it has not been lost. With 262 of the 461 precincts heard from, Church has a vote of 17,518 to Needham's 16,598. Hayes, Republican, had an easy victory in the Eighth, while Evans, Republican, has a substantial plurality over Ketner, Democrat, in the Eleventh, with about three-fourths of the precincts heard from.

Weakening.

INROADS ON BULL MOOSE LEGISLATIVE MAJORITY.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 6.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) There will be a majority in both houses of the Legislature this winter of Bull Moose.
While the allegiance of all the Republicans elected is not certain, it is not doubted that the administration has a comfortable margin both in the Senate and Assembly.

By parties the next Legislature will divide as follows:

REPUBLICANS.
Senate—Hold-overs, 12.
Senate—New members, 15.
Assembly—52.

DEMOCRATS.
Senate—Hold-overs, 6.
Senate—New members, 6.
Assembly—34.

SOCIALIST.
Assembly—1.
However, the loyalty of some of the Republicans to the Bull Moose machine is in doubt. At least one Senator, claimed as a Republican, Wright of San Diego, is opposed to the Bull Moose, and is a straight or regular Republican. Seven Republican members-elect of the Assembly are reported to also hold themselves free of Hiram Johnson's dictation, and opposed to turning the Republican party in this State over to the Bull Moose national organization.

The Democrats had only twenty representatives in the two houses combined in the last Legislature. They will have thirty-eight, or almost twice that number next winter. While heavily in the minority in the Senate, they still will have a good working organization of a dozen members. And with twenty-six Assemblymen, they can make themselves heard in the other house.

BROOMINGTON

Proven Groves Abound
at BROOMINGTON

There's heaps of difference between buying, where the GROUND is proven and buying where the GROVES are proven—money-makers.

We'll show and sell you 100% perfect eighteen-year-old groves, ten, eight, six, four, two, one-year-old groves or vacant citrus land, not a mile apart, nor a block, nor the proverbial "stones-throw," but adjoining one another.

Take your choice. Practically, set your terms. (You'll ask nothing more liberal than we offer.) Pay us prices that have set our competitors all a-wondering, so small are the figures.

You can easily go out, inspect BROOMINGTON, town and acreage, and return to Los Angeles, in a single day. BROOMINGTON is only 7 miles from either Riverside or San Bernardino, 5 miles from Colton, 54 miles from Los Angeles by Boulevard, transcontinental highway, steam or electric line—distance.

Get busy. Ask for details and literature.

TWO TOWNS STAY WET.

Prohibition Sweeps Butte County With Slight Exception After Spectacular Bitter Fight.

OROVILLE (Cal.) Nov. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After one of the most bitter campaigns ever held in Butte county outside of the incorporated cities were left wet.

Gridley stayed wet a year ago, when riggers went dry. Yesterday the entire county outside of the incorporated cities went overwhelmingly dry. The wet and dry fight almost completely eclipsed the Presidential and Congressional campaigns.

In Chico and Oroville, the two largest cities in the county, the fight was most bitter. Numerous challenges to the polls were exercised and there was a number of arrests for illegal voting. Oroville went dry by sixteen votes and Chico stayed wet by 229 votes.

JUDGES OF SUPERIOR COURT.

William P. Lawlor Re-Elected as San Francisco After Bitter Fight. Given Fourth Place.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Superior Court judges of the county were re-elected. Judge William P. Lawlor, before whom many of the famous graft cases were tried, was re-elected after a hard fight, gaining fourth and last place on the non-partisan ticket by 789 votes.

Secretary of State Loyal to Party Goes to Congress from District Gubernatorial for a Pot of Hiram Johnson, and is Being Discussed for Next Gubernatorial Candidate.

LET DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Politicians at the State capital today were discussing with interest the status of former Secretary of State Charles F. Curry, who was elected to Congress from the Third District by a big majority, Tuesday. Among the regular, or Taft Republican leaders in the State, Curry is the one who stands forth after the battle as a warrior around whom the shattered cohorts of the party might rally. Curry's majority in the county, of which he has been a legal resident only a few months—and indeed he has been officially a resident of the district for only a matter of time—was phenomenal, breaking all records, and this in the face of the bitter antagonism of the Bull Moose machine.

Curry as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor two years ago gave Hiram Johnson a good race without any machine to back him.

Curry made his fight for Congress this year on a capital of shoe leather. He went out among the voters and won them over without meetings, red fire, brass bands, or much newspaper help, outside of the Sacramento Union. He won the nomination in a district framed up admittedly as a soft snap for Judge Frank R. Devlin, the first president of the Lincoln-Roosevelt League and a pet of the Johnson administration. Devlin was regarded as a strong candidate. After beating Devlin, Curry was openly gratified by the state machine nomination was actually offered to several persons outside of the district.

A TRUE REPUBLICAN.

Curry announced himself as a Taft Republican, a firm believer in the protection theory and an upholder of the traditions of the Grand Old Party. He asserts that he is a Republican, but a Republican Progressive, not a Bull Moose, and while this district was carried overwhelmingly by the regular Republican, he also carried it overwhelmingly.

Already he is being mentioned as a candidate for Governor again two years hence. This talk does not emanate from Curry, but his friends are outpacing him. It is regarded as certain that the regular Republicans of the State will organize for the fight of 1914, probably before the present winter is over, and they are looking for a leader who is not only a true Republican, but one who has the prestige of victory to strengthen him, and Curry's friends say undoubtedly that he is the only man in the State who fills the bill in all respects.

FAMILIAR FACES VANISH FROM HALLS OF CONGRESS.

Yesterday's Landslide Engulfed Many a Legislative Veteran Who Will Be Sadly Missed Not Only on the Republican, But Also on the Democratic Side of Senate and House.

BY SUMNER CURTIS.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It will bring tears to the eyes of the old-timers to look down upon the House of Representatives after the 4th of next month. The Old Guard literally will be a singular instead of a collective noun in the next House. Two years ago it was badly shattered. But now only seven K. Payne will be left. They have "gone" Uncle Joe Cannon, the old big game hunter, who was defeated this year for re-election at the primaries. Tawney, of the old Big Five in the days of Cannon, passed out two years ago. Sherman has become Vice-President and he is now down on him when he is on Uncle Joe, will be a lone and lonesome figure.

Will take a long while to get used to a Congress without Uncle Joe Cannon—a picture of a man who led the battles for the majority or defended the principles of the minority. For forty years—longer than any other man—he has been a figure in the popular imagination. Just two years ago that period has been out of his life. He has been a member of the House for nearly twenty years. He will be missed by even those who hated him politically. He was a man of great energy and was thrown into the discharge of the duties of two years ago as a result of the avalanche of the greater number of the Republicans who have now been made to make a greater Democratic majority in the House. ## LOG CABIN BOY BEATS CANNON.

PERSONALITY AND HUMOR WIN OVER STATISTICS.

Former Speaker of House Defeated Only Twice in Forty Years. Opponent Storms Ballpark by Working With Farmers and Passing Around Cigars.

DANVILLE (Ill.) Nov. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] For the first time since 1890, and for the second time in his career of forty years in Congress, Joseph G. Cannon has been defeated for re-election in the Eighteenth District. With the six counties of the district apportioned in such a manner that the heavy Republican counties of the north outweighed the small Democratic counties of the south, "Uncle Joe" has been so firmly entrenched that nothing short of a political revolution could unseat him.

Analysis of the causes leading to his second defeat leads to the conclusion that it was mainly due to a feeling among the voters which has been steadily growing stronger each year that the former Speaker of the House, both in his sympathies and in his public acts, has been growing away from the people, and that the final upshot was principally due to the same cause that led to the formation of the Progressive party.

Sternly refusing to desert his friends with whom he has for so long worked and associated, he failed to keep his ear to the ground and could not believe that the power of his party and organization could be overthrown by the wave of insurgency that swept the country. Contributing causes to his defeat were the Republican votes which went to E. F. Royce, the third party candidate, and the personality of his chief opponent, Frank T. O'Hair, of Paris, who has won the election by a plurality of about 500.

LOG CABIN BOY.

O'Hair is 42 years old and was born in a log cabin in Edgar county, in which Paris is located. His boyhood days were spent on a farm. After graduating from the common schools he studied law at Purdue University. Upon receiving his degree he became one of the leading lawyers of his county. His present position has been won by hard work and sheer force of intellect and individuality.

PERSONALITY VS. ORATORY.

He accepted the nomination against Cannon reluctantly, but after getting into the fight he astonished the old campaigners by the novelty and success of his methods. While Cannon was hurling statistics at his audience to prove his own and his party's right to survive, O'Hair was quietly circulating among the people in a "get acquainted" campaign that included every town, city and cross-road community in the district, during which he refused to make any speeches.

Frequently he went into the fields and worked with the farmers while talking to them. Attired in a rusty suit and a slouch hat, with pockets bulging with cigars and a hand shake, he stormed the voters under his own vine and fig tree and his personality did the rest. Having been raised among the common people he made them think he was one of them. His unusual fund of good humor and ability to judge character led him to the hearts of the farmers.

During the last days of the campaign he went over the same ground, speaking at the principal places and his eloquence and his ability as a politician, coupled with his ability to tell

The Pure Product of Nature's Springs, which acts surely and gently, but without any bad after-effects

Hunyadi Janos Water
Natural Laxative
Drink Half a Glass on Arising for CONSTIPATION

the homely stories that appealed to the voters, resulted in great crowds flocking to hear him.

POLITICS VS. LOVE.

O'Hair married the daughter of O. D. Houston, a prominent Paris Republican, and his courtship came near ending abruptly during a contest for the Mayorality of that city a few years ago. During which he was pitted against his future father-in-law in a bitter campaign. The election of Houston, however, was quickly followed by a reconciliation and his marriage to his successful opponent's daughter.

BRYAN, THE DICTATOR.

Commoner Is Expected to Shape the Democratic Policy With Regard to Tariff Legislation.

(By Federal Wireless Line to The Times.)

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 6.—[Special Dispatch.] The tariff will be the chief bone of contention among the Democrats. Millions of them are real protectionists including practically all those of the Southern States.

The South now feels that it is in the saddle, having elected a southern man to the Presidency for the first time in sixty-four years. Having many industries that need protection, many of the southern Senators and Representatives will fight any effort by the free trade Democrats to put through the Underwood tariff bill. Some of them voted for the bill at the last session because they knew President Taft would veto them, so that in any event the prosperity of their States could not be endangered. Now, however, they know that Wilson will sign the bill and they are likely to balk at this severe test of their free trade faith.

In the House, there are scores of members who believe in free trade. The leaders were able to sidetrack that idea at the last session, but they will not be able to do it this time. Wilson is in the White House. Free raw wool is popular in some States and unpopular in others.

There is no way to sidetrack this issue. If Wilson attempts to dodge it, William J. Bryan will bring it to book. Bryan is for free wool, and yet, if Wilson comes out for free wool the business interests will say he is abandoning his promise to do nothing to disturb business.

In more ways than one Wilson will soon find himself in hot water. Bryan will not accept office, but will act as the Democratic President's Roosevelt. He will be to Wilson what the colonel was to President Taft. It is predicted here that Wilson and Bryan will cross swords before the new administration is one year old. Bryan has his eye fixed resolutely on 1916, when he will be an avowed candidate for the Presidency, and when he expects his opponent to be Theodore Roosevelt at the head of the old Republican party. Praising enthusiastically at first, condemning with faint praise later when he finds that Wilson is trying to conserve business, and holding out the prospect of a third term, he will be an avowed candidate for the Presidency, and when he expects his opponent to be Theodore Roosevelt at the head of the old Republican party. Praising enthusiastically at first, condemning with faint praise later when he finds that Wilson is trying to conserve business, and holding out the prospect of a third term, he will be an avowed candidate for the Presidency, and when he expects his opponent to be Theodore Roosevelt at the head of the old Republican party.

With countless demands for office that he cannot grant, with a top-heavy party, divided in opinion as to the policies that should be pursued, and with Bryan posing as a candidate, Wilson will have his hands full. He is waiting now to see whether he will be forced by public opinion to call an extra session and if he does so the trouble will begin at once.

that beginning with the date mentioned dogs not to exceed 125 value and not intended for exhibition purposes "if muzzled" and provided with properly fitting collars, and strong

UNIFORM BILLS OF LADING.

Plan to Bring Southern and Northern Roads in Harmony Important Topic Before Traffic League.CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 6.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Proposed uniformity in bills of lading on northern and southern railroads is to be one of the important topics to come before the National Industrial Traffic League, the representative organization of shippers, at its annual meeting to be held in Chicago, November 14. Members of the league in Chicago received today copies of the docket for the convention. At present the so-called standard bill of lading is in effect on southern roads, while the uniform bill is prevalent on northern railroads. The plan is to bring the two into harmony.
Efforts to this end have been made by shippers and railroads in conference for some time past, and it is probable that if these are not successful the Interstate Commerce Commission will be appealed to in the hope that it may solve the problem.The Congressional bill relating to bills of lading passed at the Pomerene bill by the Senate during the last Congress also will be discussed. The bill is to come before the House at the coming session. It provides a national bill of lading law, a thing which does not now exist.A number of other important matters are docketed for consideration, among them uniform classification as to descriptions, package requirements, minimum weights, railroads in numbered and lettered classes; advice from the Southern Classification Committee that dockets heretofore have been made public in advance of meetings; interpretation of demurrage rules and incomplete expense bills.In the last matter, shippers are striving with the American Railway Association to secure regulations to incorporation of greater details in expense bills, principally records of transfers of freight from one car to another at route and greater specifications in handling charges. While to govern in the assessment of freight charges, appointment of deputy interstate Commerce Commissioners, railroad rules as to storage of freight and export demurrage and storage charges also are to be discussed.The annual banquet of the league will be held at the Hotel La Salle at 7 p.m. of the same day.

MAY INCREASE HOP RATE.

Interstate Commerce Commission Approves of Freight Advance From Washington and Oregon.WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 6.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Western railroads will be permitted to increase the blanket rates on hops from points of production in Washington and Oregon and to the East, according to a decision issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission.The new blanket rates, which are in effect today, will be $1.15 per 100 pounds or less than that. The new rates will be in effect from December 1 to the end of the season. The Union Pacific, Northern Pacific, Great Northern and other roads are involved in this case.Writing the decision of the commission, Chairman Prouty says that the roads have justified the advance in that the former rates were too low in proportion to the cost of salvage.

FOR EASTERN VISITORS.

REDUCED RAILWAY FARES.

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 6.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Roads operating westward and eastward from Chicago are considering a proposition to put into effect from December 15 to 31 home visitors' excursion fares from points in Colorado and Wyoming to destinations in Central and Western Passenger Association territory. The fares would be of the lowest rate for three months from date of sale and stop-overs will be allowed at Missouri River gateway and all points east thereof within the limit of the ticket. The limit will not be exceeded. Fares will be on the basis of 5 cents per mile in each direction.

OIL COMPANY DIVIDEND.

This is the first declaration made by the company since the dissolution of the oil trust.

FIRE INSURANCE.

San Francisco, Nov. 6.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The fire insurance industry of San Francisco is expected to be

The plan is to combine the assets of the various companies and to create a single entity to do business under the name of the San Francisco Fire Insurance Company.

HAYWARD SUE FOR DIVORCE.

Former Secretary of Republican
National Committee and Wife Part
After World Trip.OMAHA, Nov. 6.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) William Hayward, formerly secretary of the Republican National Committee, was yesterday made defendant in a suit for divorce filed in Omaha by his wife, Mrs. Sarah
C. Hayward. Although Mr. Hayward
now lives in New York City, his wife
has maintained her residence in Omaha, where she lived before her husband moved to New York.The divorce is asked on the grounds of extreme cruelty. In her petition, Mrs. Hayward cites that for the past six years her husband has been very cruel to her, causing her great mental anguish and permanently injuring her health. No instances of cruelty are mentioned, and Mrs.
Hayward refuses to discuss the suit
in any way.Hayward was defeated for Congress
two years ago and then he and his wife started on a trip around the world. On landing at New York, Mr.
Hayward remained there and Mrs.
Hayward came on to Nebraska and

TEXT BOOK AMENDMENT.

State Superintendent Asks Attorney-General to Straighten Out Tangle
Caused by Late Election.SACRAMENTO (Cal.) Nov. 6.— State Superintendent of Public Instruction Hyatt, today sent a communication to Atty.-Gen. Webb, asking three questions upon which he desires rulings, because of the adoption of the free text-book amendment.The first is what effect will the adoption of the amendment have on the text books now in use, the second, what is the status of the Text-Book Committee, and the third, what authority has the State Superintendent and the State Printer in the continuation of the manufacture and sale of text-books.

WILSON ENTERS
DARK VALLEY.FORMER UNITED STATES SENATOR
DIES IN WASHINGTON.Owner of Seattle Post-Intelligencer Succumbs to Attack of Heart Disease While on His Way to Visit Panama—Body Is Taken for Burial to Old Indiana Home.

(By Federal Wireline) Line to The Times.

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 6.—(Special Dispatch.)
John L. Wilson, former United States Senator from Washington and owner of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, died at the New Willard Hotel here this morning, of aneurysm pectoris, an affection of the heart.Mr. and Mrs. Wilson came to Washington several days ago on their way to visit the Panama Canal. Early this morning, Mr. Wilson was seized with a shaking spell and a physician was called, but he died within two hours.
The end came at 4:30 o'clock.The body will be taken to Craw-fordville, Ind., the birthplace of the former Senator, at 4:45 p.m. tomorrow. Ashmun Brown, correspondent of the Post-Intelligencer here, will accompany the widow. It is probable the funeral will be held Saturday morning.

A BUSTY LIFE.

Mr. Wilson, who was a brother of Henry Lane Wilson, United States Ambassador to Mexico, was widely known as a politician and publisher.
He was born August 7, 1850, and graduated from Washburn College in 1874. After spending one year as a clerk in the pension office in Washington, he returned to Indiana and in 1880, was elected to the Legislature.
Two years later he went to Spokane, Wash., and was appointed Receiver of Public Money, a position he held until 1884.Mr. Wilson was a member of the Fifty-first, Fifty-second and Fifty-third Congresses, resigning in 1895 to become editor of the Washington Senator to serve the unexpired term of John R. Allen, who died in 1893. He bought the Post-Intelligencer in 1890.
When Mr. Wilson entered Congress as a government clerk in 1875, and returned West, he made the boast that he was a member of Congress. This is a well-known story in the capital and one which Mr. Wilson delighted to tell to Washingtonians.

GRIEF AT THE CAPITAL.

WILSON'S UNTIMELY DEMISE.

(By Federal Wireline) Line to The Times.

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE
TIMES, Nov. 6.—(Special Dispatch.)
Public men generally in Washington were shocked by the sudden death of former Senator John L. Wilson of Washington. He was in his usual good health last night and took a keen interest in the election returns. Much of the evening he spent at the Press Club among the newspaper men, where he was congratulated upon his good health and fine spirits. Secretary of State Knox, when informed of Senator Wilson's death, said: "I am grieved beyond expression. It will not be easy to fill the place of such a man in journalism and public life."
Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania said: "I knew Senator Wilson for many years and in addition to being a remarkably striking personality, he was a faithful friend and a loyal congenial companion. He was a man who was intellectually of Delaware was not the kind to be carried away by schemes and new movements which would not bear scrutiny under the microscope. His death is a distinct loss to the nation and causes sorrow among the members of the
When Senator Duffort of Delaware was informed of former Senator Wilson's death he said: "I am shocked beyond expression. He was a man who was useful in the public service that his loss at this time, when starvation Republicans and patriotic Americans are so needed, will be felt throughout the nation. The Republican party is in need of all its patriotic members and Senator Wilson was one of the most distinguished Republicans. He was an indefatigable worker and everything that he did had to be submitted to a rigid scrutiny that was directed to the preservation of the ideals of the republic."

RAYMOND SUE FOR DIVORCE.

National Committee and Wife Part
After World Trip.OMAHA, Nov. 6.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) William Hayward, formerly secretary of the Republican National Committee, was yesterday made defendant in a suit for divorce filed
in Omaha by his wife, Mrs. Sarah
C. Hayward. Although Mr. Hayward
now lives in New York City, his wife
has maintained her residence in Omaha, where she lived before her husband moved to New York.The divorce is asked on the grounds of extreme cruelty. In her petition, Mrs. Hayward cites that for the past six years her husband has
been very cruel to her, causing her
great mental anguish and permanently injuring her health. No instances
of cruelty are mentioned, and Mrs.
Hayward refuses to discuss the suit
in any way.Hayward was defeated for Congress
wife started on a trip around the
world. On landing at New York, Mr.
Hayward remained there and Mrs.
Hayward came on to Nebraska and
has remained here since.

THE UPWARD
TRENDThe laws which govern financial growth point with growing emphasis to the near approach of the time when Hibernian Home Builders' shares must rise in price.The upward trend in values which has marked our operations is inevitably seeking a higher level.Increasing investments are daily accelerating the pace of our progress.This growing volume of business is gravitating toward the point where investors will make large profits.The operation of this upward trend is natural, automatic and irresistible.Our shares are on the eve of an advance. They cannot logically be kept back much longer.The consequent increase in value will accrue to those who invest while the price is low.This is only the beginning. The future with its assured financial possibilities is still before our shareholders.Tried by the tests of Safety, Stability and Upward Trend our shares are being daily proved and approved by an increasing number of investors.Our Guarantee Fund combines Security with financial facilities.Administered by a competent Board of Trustees, this fund provides investors in our company with ready cash should they need it.Our real estate holdings consist of local property within the circle of your observation and on the line of civic development where values are growing steadily.Within a few days we begin the actual work of Home-Building, which will at once add to the value of our property in that locality.These building preparations will further stimulate the upward trend of values.For these reasons the present is the proper time to buy our shares.At 20 cents they are the very best investment for you in Los Angeles today.The payment of One Dollar monthly will give you 100 shares. More is at your disposal if you want it.Use the coupon for inquiry; or make us a personal call.Ask us to mail you "THE VISION," a booklet of surpassing interest to investors.

A dark, high-contrast, black and white photograph of a textured surface, possibly a book cover or a piece of wood. The image shows vertical lines and a rough, uneven texture, with a prominent vertical crease or fold running down the center. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the ridges and shadows of the texture.

STOCKS AND BONDS—
And Mortgages

The image shows a vertical, rectangular surface that is extremely dark, appearing as a deep black or very dark brown. The entire surface is covered in a dense network of fine, parallel vertical lines, which could be scratches, fibers, or a scanning artifact. There are also several larger, more irregular vertical scratches and marks scattered across the surface. The lighting is uneven, with the left side being slightly lighter and showing more detail of the texture, while the right side is in deep shadow. The overall appearance is one of significant wear, damage, or a very rough, aged material.

Conceded to Have Won in Race for Los Angeles Superior Court Judgeships.
Judges Rives and McCormick are running neck and neck for first honors in the judicial derby. Charles Wellborn is third, Judge Houser fourth and John M. York fifth, though by a narrow margin over Justice J. W. Summerfield. No doubt as to the election of these five is expressed.

SOME CLOSE RUNNING IN CITY AND COUNTY.
Senator Thompson Elected by Only a Few Hundred Votes.
One Bull Moose Candidate for Assembly Defeated by a Socialist and Two Others Get Sharp Rubs—County Charter May be Knocked Out by Country Returns York the Fifth Judge.

COMPLETE RETURNS from 654 out of the 727 precincts in the county (city included) show that Roosevelt carried the city and county by 11,000 to 13,000 over President-elect Wilson. The 654 precincts give the defeated Bull Moose candidate 59,680 to Wilson's 48,640. Debs is trailing along with 18,457 votes. Roosevelt carried the city by 6500. Final returns from four-fifths of the county districts indicate he will have about the same plurality outside the city.

Boss Lisner issued a statement last night that the county had gone for the Third-Term by 22,000 plurality, which vote, he asserted, will give California to Roosevelt by 1000 plurality. Chairman Cotton of the Democratic County Central Committee vigorously declared after hearing the Lisner statement that Roosevelt will not carry the county by 12,000 and said the discredited boss gave such figures simply to instill a ray of hope in the bleeding hearts of the crushed "Progressives."

Chairman Cotton detailed two men last night to watch the count at the registration bureau, which is in the hands of Lisner-Stinson workers. Returns from all the principal cities in the county have been tabulated. The missing precincts are mostly from the small towns and villages and their vote is not expected to change the result more than 1000 one way or the other.

The Bull Moose elected two Congressmen; five State Senators; fourteen Assemblymen out of fifteen, and three Supervisors. C. W. Kingsley, a Socialist, defeated J. Henry Baetz, Earl-Lisner candidate, in the Sixty-fifth district, by a vote of 1809 to 1186. Kingsley is the first Socialist ever elected to the Legislature from Southern California. Several other Bull Moose Senate and Assembly nominees had close calls. Frank H. Mouser, "Progressive," defeated C. E. Sheekels, Socialist, by 2594 to 2518, in the Seventy-fourth District, and E. A. Emmons just nipped a victory over Alex Kane, a San Pedro Socialist, by a vote of 2418 to 2123. Senator Thompson won by a good plurality over Atwood, Socialist, in the Thirty-seventh District. Early returns indicated Atwood's election.

Congressman Stephens is re-elected by a large plurality over Ringo, Democrat. State Senator Bell defeated T. H. Kirk in the Ninth Congress District by 5000. The combined Democratic and Socialist vote was bigger than Bell's total vote by 2500.

Judge Rives is leading by a few votes over Judge McCormick. Charles Wellborn is third; Judge Houser, fourth, and John M. York, fifth. York is surely elected. He is leading Justice Summerfield by about 10,000 votes. G. Ray Horton ran surprisingly low and is about 8000 votes behind Summerfield. The vote on the county charter is close and it may be defeated. It carried in the city by about 10,000, but the country districts went strongly against it. The Public Service plan for the distribution of the Los Angeles Aqueduct water, which was submitted only in the city, carried nearly two to one.

FEW BUT JUICY LOCAL PLUMS.

NOT MANY FEDERAL JOBS FOR DEMOCRATS HERE.

District Attorney, Marshal and Postmaster to Go Under New Administration—Most of the Government Office-Holders Safe Under Civil Service and the Classified List.

Thanks to the classified and civil service, there will be but little fruit available for hungry Democrats on the political plum tree at the Federal building, following the inauguration of the Wilson administration.

Under the law it is possible for the new President to lift the ban, but as matters now stand there will be but few vacancies, though these are important ones. With one exception the post office will be protected by the civil service rules.

The principal head to be placed on the political charger will be that of Postmaster Harrison, whose commission expires March 1, 1914. This job is worth $4000 a year to some aspiring Democrat. Assistant Postmaster Edward F. Bishopman was placed on the classified list by President Taft the month ago, so that what the wild waves are saying will be of little import to him. Every other employee of the post office is protected by the civil service rules.

Claude I. Parker, Collector of Internal Revenue for the Sixth District, draws $4500 a year during the pleasure of the Secretary of the Treasury. This may mean much or nothing under the new regime. All of the other employees of the office are on the classified list.

C. W. Pendleton, Collector of Customs, has a year and a half left to draw his maximum of $4500 a year. His chief deputy, William Wickersham, is exposed to the political elements, but all of the other employees are under the protecting aegis of the classified service.

Frank E. Johnson, secret service agent of the United States Treasury Department, and his stenographer, Charles Stalter, are under civil service, as is Capt. George W. Hasen, also of the secret service.

SOME CHANGES.

United States Marshal Leo V. Youngworth, who holds an appointive office, has two more years to serve. His chief clerk, Albert Stille, and his stenographer, George White, are under civil service, but Deputies Dugan and Dingle are supplanted.

United States District Attorney A. I. McCormick, with his assistant, Edward A. Regan, Dudley W. Robinson and Harry R. Archibald, will retire next April when McCormick's term of four years expires. The position of District Attorney pays $4000 a year, with the deputyship ranging from $2200 to $1500.

Register Buren and Receiver Robinson of the local land office are subject to change after the expiration of their term of service, one year from the coming January. These places pay $2000 a year. Their clerks in the office are under civil service.

In the immigration department everybody from Capt. Charles T. Connell in charge, down Charles Levi, the Chinese interpreter, is protected by civil service. Capt. Connell gets $1000 a year.

R. H. Charlton, supervisor of the Angeles Forest Reserve, and all of his employees are under civil service, as well as the chiefs and employees of the geographical survey and the reclamation service. The post of supervisor is worth $2400 a year. He is the highest paid supervisor in the service.

James Ganor, secret service agent of the Department of Justice, is protected by the civil service.

Frederick Jones, naturalization examiner, is also under the wings of the civil service, but as he is one of the old Daniel Voorhees Democrats from Indiana he would stay anyhow, it is believed.

All of the postoffice inspectors, Webster, Wilson, Martin, Cookson and Gray, are civil service men.

The clerks of the United States District Court hold their places through the favor of Judge Wellborn, as does Ralph Dominguez, court clerk. Bluffe Riley, Rose and Alfred are appointed by the United States Marshal and share his political fortunes.

TO ENTERTAIN BRAZILIANS.

President Osborne of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday appointed the following committee to entertain the party of Brazilians who will arrive in this city Sunday from San Diego: Percy H. Clark, chairman; R. W. Burnham, James Slauson, Hon. William D. Stephens, C. W. Gates, Thomas B. Comstock, T. L. Duque, W. W. La Petra, Fred S. Rowan, Maynard McKee, Robert Watson, W. J. Hole, C. M. Gordon and Arthur W. Kinney.

Appellate Court Decision.

The custody of J. Ross Clark II, Virginia M. Clark Tanner, will not be disturbed pending the final hearing of the question of guardianship before Judge Rives on the 20th inst. The District Court of Appeal yesterday denied the grandfather's petition to annul an order made by the Superior Court giving Mrs. Tanner temporary custody of the infant.

The higher court finds that the lower court had ample jurisdiction under the circumstances to make the order complained of. It also finds that the fact that this court, under the evidence exhibited, might have been impelled to act differently than did the Superior Court and might have, under such evidence, refused to disturb the custody of the minor child pending hearing, cannot have any influence in the decision of the legal questions presented on this application.

MAIL AT SIXTY MILES AN HOUR NEWEST WAY.

Espee's New Mail Exchange Device.

Which has been officially adopted by the coast division after thorough tests. By it mail pouches are picked up and delivered while the train is passing at sixty miles an hour. The pillar shown carries semi-circular horns, with corresponding ones on the train, both actuated by automatic devices which are so delicate that a pouch filled with eggs can be delivered at high speed without breakage.

A mail exchange device which will revolutionize the old system of throwing mail sacks into railway depots and catching them on an arm while through mail trains are passing at high speed is to be placed in operation on the coast division of the Southern Pacific today.

Other divisions of the same road and several other systems will soon install the new device. It is the invention of William H. Jones of Manhattan Beach, who, as postmaster of Isla, Idaho, had his attention drawn to the danger arising from throwing the mail bags out of the cars while in rapid motion. Stimulated by local capital through the instrumentality of John Alton, vice-president of the Farmers & Merchants' National Bank, the invention has been tested and improved over a period of three years. On Tuesday a special train carrying a mail car equipped with the appliance, a coach carrying officials of the railroad, special representatives of the Postoffice Department and railway mail service, officers of the company and newspaper representatives traveled over the route as far as Santa Barbara, making a final test of the machine which has been installed.

Travelers on the coast line have noticed the erection of cone-like towers rising about fifteen feet from the ground out of a base of cement and surrounded by a small platform. These white monuments were tipped with what appeared to be a pair of great steel horns like those of a Texas steer.

In the Southern Pacific shops crews of men have been employed in putting pairs of rails between the doors of mail cars, but on the ceiling instead of the floor. On this they placed a steel arm on wheels, which arm, attached to a chain, raised a large steel hook when pushed forward. A spring retains the arm in position. A steel ring which clamps the mail pouch is attached to the arm and a ring of the small type is attached to the arm of the standard.

The hook on the standard points in one direction and that on the train in the other. As the train passes the hooks run through the rings, pick up and deliver mail at the same instant. The pouch caught on the train hook is deposited inside of the coach on the floor while that on the standard awaits the arrival of the postmaster to be released. Automatically upon the release of the pouch the arm travels back into the car, while the steel horns on the standard tip upward, working much of the shock and at the same time making the track clearance required by the railroad department of the government.

Every possible test was made of the apparatus. A bag containing three mail pouches, each weighing in the neighborhood of 250 pounds, was delivered to the standards at speeds varying from five to sixty miles an hour. At a preliminary test several weeks ago one of the pouches was filled with crates of eggs. The crates were of the ordinary cardboard variety and were tied with a piece of string. The bag containing the eggs was delivered from the train going fifty miles an hour and, on the return, the eggs were found intact. One of the railroad officials, desirous of more accurately approximating the traveling time, took some of the eggs home, and placed them under a hen. Nine out of twelve were hatched.

The company plans to immediately build a large number of the standards. The parts, as far as possible, are all made here and the entire device is assembled in Los Angeles. "Controlled by Los Angeles people, we intend that all returns from it shall go into the development of Los Angeles," said Alton. Other officials of the company present at the demonstrations were P. Kitchen, vice-president; W. H. Jones, inventor; and superintendents of construction and maintenance; George L. Alton, his assistant; H. F. Stewart of the Farmers & Merchants' National Bank, and Arthur C. Hill.

H. W. Watkins of the Southern Pacific, expert for the railroad and F. R. M. Jones, chief of the telephone and telegraph department, and railway mail service men and construction experts completed the party. The name of the corporation building and distributing the device will be known as the Universal Mail Dispatcher Company.

Under Democratic Rule.

GROWERS DO NOT FEAR CITRUS TARIFF SLASH.

C HAROLD POWELL, general manager of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange, radiated optimism when asked yesterday as to the effect, if any, the changing administration will have on the citrus industry.

"We are face to face with the greatest season the industry has ever known," said Powell. "There will be a larger crop of both oranges and lemons in Southern California than ever before, barring some unforeseen calamity, and the buying area is greatly extended. Better cultural methods, perfected packing methods, and highly developed co-operation are the three things which we expect to increase the revenue beyond the point of any serious inconvenience by such tariff revision as may be made by the growers."

Powell is not inclined to believe that it is the purpose of the new administration to seriously inconvenience a great home industry, but rather believes that its future lies in hands of the growers.

"The present duty on lemons," he said, "produces a revenue to the government of more than $2,250,000 a year, an increase since the passage of the Payne-Aldrich act in 1909. Whether or not this revenue will be disturbed or not will depend on how literally the party in power fulfills the spirit of the platform. If a general reduction in duties is made all along the line it is not unusual to expect that the citrus industry would share in such general reduction, yet there is a very strong argument to maintain the present lemon duty from the fact that it will encourage more extensive planting and culture, build up the industry and increase the revenues of the government."

"If at any time in the future California should need to meet a greater competition, the course for the industry to pursue is to increase the thoroughness of its cultural methods; perfect grading and packing methods; and extend the buying area. The efficiency of the methods of distribution so that California products will increase as an asset to the jobber who handles citrus fruits."

KILLED IN THE AIR.

Electrician, Son of Bakersfield Judge, Electrocuted at Work—Body Acts As a Conductor. Thousands of volts from a high-tension wire snapped the life out of Harry Flournoy, 26 years old, an electrician employed by the Southern California Edison Company, while he was working on Hooper avenue, between Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eighth streets yesterday. He was the son of Judge Flournoy of Bakersfield. Flournoy, engaged in replacing a section of a damaged high-tension wire, stood on a Honey Telephone Company heavy cable. The current passed from the live wire through Flournoy's body to the cable. A life belt prevented the body from falling to the ground. Dr. Stimsfield, the electric company's physician, pronounced Flournoy dead soon afterward. The body was sent to the Bessie mortuary.

Young Flournoy lived at the Hotel Bessie, between Fifth and Hill streets. His widow resides in Bakersfield.

Five Speeders Fined. There was so much speeding throughout the city yesterday that Central Station motorcycle officers made five arrests. In each instance the drivers were not taking voters to the polls, although one or two of them said they were hastening to the polls to vote. Charles Johnson, Hermal Hanes and L. E. Blanford paid $25 each, and H. H. Jones and Walter Williams were let off with suspended sentences.

BIG STOCKYARDS PLANNED.

Local Corporation Secures Land in Vernon and Necessary Permit from Board of Trustees.

A permit to conduct a stockyard was issued yesterday afternoon by the Vernon Board of Trustees to the Los Angeles Union Stock Yards Company. The company is capitalized at $1,000,000 and has the following officers: John Swank, president; D. A. Whitaker, vice-president; W. R. Letton, secretary and treasurer. The directorate will include two Kansas City packers and prominent business men of this city.

President Swank stated last night that more than one-fourth of the capital stock had been paid in and that the company is preparing to begin business on a big scale. Options and leases have been secured on about eighty acres of land in Vernon, between Santa Fe avenue and Alameda street, south of the Vernon arena.

Whitaker, who was formerly a stockyard man in Kansas City, says that $75,000 to $100,000 will be expended at once on yard equipment, hay barns, corrals and switches. It is planned to erect a stock exchange building, bank and other buildings, the officers say.

According to statements by Swank and Letton last night, the company is planning to build a stock exchange building, bank and other buildings, the officers say.

WINS BIGGEST FIGHT.

Veteran of Mexican and Civil Wars Conquers Pneumonia and Will Soon Be Home Again. Col. Charles J. Murphy, 80 years old, of San Francisco, veteran of the Mexican and Civil wars, decorated by the Government of Mexico and the United States, and who has been fighting pneumonia for several months, was pronounced well yesterday.

The scene was a cot in the County Hospital where he was taken several weeks ago suffering from pneumonia. Col. Murphy came to Los Angeles on a visit to his son, who is a member of the G.A.R. encampment. He was taken ill the day of his arrival and during the week that his fellow comrades paraded and held camp fires he was confined to his bed at the Fremont Hotel.

The day he intended to leave for home he insisted upon visiting a few friends. The next day he was stricken with pneumonia and his condition became so alarming that it was found necessary to remove him to the hospital. There the veteran of two wars and a life of usefulness and much activity fought another fight that for a time was feared would be his last.

TOMBSTONE FORGERY ODD CHARGE MADE.

UNUSUAL If not grave, accusations were made against J. A. McGrath by the District Attorney yesterday when he was arraigned in Justice Reeve's court on a charge of having secured funds by means of forged orders for tombstones. R. B. Allison, a skilled worker in marble and granite, who says he has a number of second-hand tombstones and many instruments for sale because of the doling of his employee, McGrath, is the principal witness. When seen yesterday he appeared to have more sorrow than anger against his versatile helper. But he declared positively that McGrath signed the names of various persons to contracts for the purchase of headstones and thus secured several hundred dollars in commissions that didn't belong to him.

McGrath could not be found yesterday to give his version of the dispute which led to a criminal complaint against him. When arraigned in the Justice Court he told one of the officers that it was merely a misunderstanding and that he was repudiating the stones and that the whole matter should be settled in a civil action.

Deputy District Attorney Helms, who issued the complaint, stated he had talked with a number of witnesses all of whom declared positively that they had never signed any paper binding them to buy tombstones for her husband, who was buried in Sunset Cemetery, Sawtelle. The stone was to be placed in December, 1911, and McGrath, who appears to be somewhat easy going in collecting his accounts.

sought to obtain the money for the stones, the widow declared she had never ordered it. Confronted with what purported to be her signature she declared somebody had forged it. "Of course I have no means of knowing whether the name 'Mrs. Walsh O'Hannett' is a genuine signature or not," explained Allison yesterday. "All I know is that McGrath worked for me on commissions. When he heard of a death he would seek some member of the family and suggest that a suitable tombstone should be ordered."

It is expected the hearing will develop that there is considerable rivalry among stone cutters who specialize on tombstones and that often a bereaved family is visited by some agent who in his zeal to secure the house not long after the undertaker.

The business, declared Deputy District Attorney Helms yesterday is of course perfectly legitimate, and properly conducted profitable to the dealer. But Helms stated he had made inquiries into the case and ascertained himself that some of the handsome stones now reposing in the graves of the city were inscribed with most delicate and reassuring sentiments were never ordered by the loved ones of the departed, and that the inscriptions emanated from the facile brain of McGrath.

Of course, if the stones are not used the inscriptions can be chiseled off and others carved. In fact, that is often done, but the gist of the collector's alleged offense is that he got the money of the hard-working tombstone dealer in advance.

It is said that McGrath has been retained counsel to defend him.

SHOE ON THE OTHER FOOT.

Los Angeles Judge Will Have to Make Another Ruling to Fit This Case of Santa Ana Marriage.

Judge Monroe says Santa Ana marriages don't stick, but a new ruling will be necessary in this case for the shoe is on the other foot. Harold A. Leiby, chief clerk of the Edison Company in Santa Ana, and Nellie W. Kennedy went to Clerk Sparks at the Los Angeles county clerk's office and asked for the bit of paper that would make their marriage possible.

The couple were married yesterday at the residence of Rev. T. C. Miller in Huntington Park. The ceremony was Miss Kennedy's pastor years ago at Santa Ana.

CHINATOWN REVIVAL.

Religious Meetings With Many Converts Conducted in Native Tongue by Missionary.

A religious revival has been sweeping through Chinatown during the past ten days, which, mission teachers say, is the most far-reaching ever experienced here among orientals.

Every evening a large throng of Chinese is gathered at the mission of the Methodist Episcopal Church, attended by Chinese from all the missions, and preceded by street meetings conducted by Dr. C. R. Hager.

For nearly twenty years Dr. Hager was a missionary in Southern China, with headquarters in Hongkong. He speaks the Chinese language and has been a student of the Chinese language in both Los Angeles and Pasadena; Rev. Lee Hong of the Congregational mission, and Rev. Mr. Lee, recently from China, important part in the revolution in Hongkong twenty years ago.

Passing down Marchessault street into the heart of Chinatown early in the evening, a night during the past week one would see grouped on a corner, a crowd of Chinese listening intently to the words of Dr. Hager as he mounted on a box, he preached the gospel in the native tongue of his audience. A little portable organ set down where convenient and played by one of the mission teachers, accompanied the singing of gospel hymns—sung in a different tongue but to familiar tunes.

ALIGHTS TO DEATH.

Schoolgirl Steps From Car and Her Life Is Crushed Out by an Automobile. Walking around the rear end of a car from which she had just alighted, at Pico and Berendo streets, Joanne Green, a 12-year-old high school girl, stepped in front of an auto driven by H. F. Hearing, an advertising man of No. 419 West Ninth street, yesterday and sustained injuries which caused her death at the Resolving Hospital.

She was the daughter of Isadore S. Green of No. 2323 Juliet street, proprietor of the Golden Gate Wine Company. At the time of the accident the girl was on her way home from school.

The front and rear wheels of Hearing's machine passed over her chest. Hearing placed the unconscious girl in his machine and rushed her to the hospital.

NOT AFTER CLICKER.

Escaped Member of "Dirty Ten" Gang Believed Responsible for Hold-ups of Japanese.

Central Station detectives yesterday doubled their efforts to recapture Frank Clicker, 18 years old, member of the "dirty Ten" gang, who escaped from the Detention Home Monday evening, when it was reported that late Tuesday night two men, one answering the description of Clicker, held up and robbed H. Nakashima, a Japanese employee of the Brooks ranch.

The hold-ups were white handkerchiefs over their faces. At the point of revolvers they relieved Nakashima of $10, a watch and a fountain pen. The Japanese was bringing a wagon load of vegetables to town.

Miss Della Louise Hayden.

The fiancée of James C. Haggarty. Miss Hayden was the honored guest last evening at a fashionable dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Haggarty of West Adams street.

THE PAST WEEK has been devoted to the debutantes and even the young people, who are not yet out, participate in the good times. Yesterday afternoon Miss Margaret Vincent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Vincent of South Hoover street, was presented to a large number of guests by her mother. Mrs. Vincent was assisted by Mrs. Seward Cole, Mrs. Milton Hammond, Mrs. Thomas T. Robinson, Mrs. Van West, Mrs. Alfred Morton Smith, Mrs. A. Kinsch, Mrs. E. J. Lusk, Mrs. Dorothy Fagg, Miss Elsie Ross, Miss Helen Summers, Miss Pettie Higgins, Miss Helen Galtreth and Miss Katherine Wells.

The home was lovely with choice roses. Pink Japan Choctet buds were effective in the drawing-room while in the dining-room a shower of Cecile Brunners fell from the chandelier to a basket of Manan Choctet, which centered the table.

Miss Schumann a Bride.
Beneath a canopy of amilax and asparagus plumosus Miss Marie Schumann became the bride last evening of Leland Sanborn Bower, the service having been held at the home of the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Catherine A. Smith of West Twenty-fifth street.

Rev. Baker P. Lee officiating. Only members of the immediate family were present.
The bride was attired in cream-colored charmesse with trimmings of duchesse lace. Her veil was held in place with orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white and pink roses. Miss Italia Bower, who was attired in yellow charmesse and carried an arm cluster of yellow chrysanthemums, was the bride-elect's only attendant.

Arrowhead Notes.
Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Fridham, with their son, and Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Crandall and their baby daughter have been passing a few days at the Arrowhead. They are making daily auto trips in this vicinity.
Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Helm were hosts at a delightful luncheon at Arrowhead Hot Springs Hotel on Tuesday. They entertained a party of Los Angeles friends and the table decorations were beautiful. Upon the return of Mr. Helm to his home on Carrol avenue, he has planned a series of weekly musicales through the winter season.

Society Party.
Members of the Chi Tau Sigma Sorority entertained with a Halloween party at the home of Miss Genevieve Moore of South Bichel street. The house was decorated with Halloween symbols and chrysanthemums, effectively arranged, and games and music were enjoyed. The sorority members included Mrs. Samuel Hall, the Misses Louise Holm, Lillian Holm, Frances Schumacher, Genevieve O'Brien, Elva Murray, Genevieve Moore, Helen Moore, Lucille Haskell, Hazel Landers, May Callup and Mame Kelley.

Enjoyable Party.
Miss Frances Hartigan of No. 823 Kingsley drive entertained about seventy of her friends with a Halloween dancing party recently. The decorations were chrysanthemums and ferns placed in pumpkin jardiniere. There were red apples strung on colored cords, toasted corn ears, chestnuts, bouquets of corn stalks, jack-o'-lantern ticktacks, illuminated black cats, grotesque animals and other bobolinks. The porch and the pergola leading from the front were decorated with Japanese lanterns. Refreshments were served in the breakfast-room and on the mezzanine floor. The guests were Misses Coral Cole, Charlotte Pemberton, Margaret Cardell, Margaret McNeely, Florence Barnwell, Anna Logan, Irma Reed, Dorothy Jenkins, Marjorie McClus, Merced Terry, Dorothy Arner, Aileen Haskell, Leona Backer, Katharine Livingside, Bernice Poulkes, Gretchen Edwards, Mary Ahrens, Frances Edwards, Wynne Carwell, Katherine Pratt, Ida Underwood, Jeanette Wilson, Ruth Reichenbach, Margaret Wetherby, Grace West, Alma Vonderhoh, Gertrude Jones, Madeline Aldo Lehmann, Ward Giffen, Sam Ritchie and Ralph Ahrens. Messrs. Wooster Gist, George Leonard, Wallace Bailey, Fritz Jacobson, Harry Webster, Lloyd Gripe-

From Toronto.
Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Campbell with their daughter, Mrs. Gallagher, of Toronto, Ont., are passing the winter in this city.
Gone East.
Mrs. John E. Starnes, with her daughter, Miss Katherine, have gone East to visit Chicago, New York and East Orange, N. J.
Silver Wedding.
In celebration of their silver wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Campbell of No. 155 Loma Drive entertained early in the week with an informal luncheon. The home was done in silver throughout. Mrs. Campbell received her guests in her wedding gown.

Mrs. Dillingham Home.
Mrs. W. C. Dillingham has returned from an extended eastern trip.

Wedding Announcement.
Mrs. M. A. Morriway of this city announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Leon, to Joseph Shipley. The service took place at St. Vibiana Cathedral Sunday at high noon. The young people left immediately after for San Francisco, where they will make their future home.

Tea for Bride-elect.
A pleasure of yesterday afternoon was the tea party given by Mrs. Margaret Jungquist at her home, No. 225 North Oxford avenue, for her sister, Miss Loreta Brown, who is betrothed to George Edward Grawburg of this city. November 14 was announced as the wedding date and the service will be spoken at the Euclid Heights Methodist Episcopal Church. Yellow and white chrysanthemums

GRAND OPERA

At the Theater
—Entertains

On the Victor
—Educates

By all means go to the theater when Grand Opera comes—the stage setting, the costumes, the audience, all help to impress you with the dignity, the grandeur of inspired music.

But remember, the part you like best, you can hear, not once, but as often as you like on the Victor, your seat will not cost $3, either, yet the voices are those of the WORLD'S BEST.

Also remember, we enjoy best those operas with which we are most familiar—the more operas we know well, the broader our education.

Both before and after the opera the Victrola ripens a more acquaintance into a delightful intimacy.

WOODCOCK PLEADS GUILTY.

Postal Employee Who Robbed Mails Given Sentence of Eleven Months in the County Jail.

Frank W. Woodcock, formerly employed in the registry department of the local postoffice, pleaded guilty to robbing the mails in the United States District Court yesterday. He was sentenced to eleven months in the County Jail. He has already served about six months since his arrest last May. The counts of the indictment found against Woodcock alleged that he had stolen two marked $1 bills and a small gold fob from the mails. It is alleged that he was responsible for thefts from the mails involved in fifty-eight separate complaints and the appearance of nearly $100 in cash, besides many trinkets that were found in his room.

A number of friends of the accused man gave evidence as to the previous good character. Among these were Bishop Johnson, Dean McCormack of St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral, J. R. Campbell, who was a deputy United States Marshal at Sitka while Woodcock was postmaster there; H. J. Hunt, who used to play in the band with Woodcock in Port Chester, N. Y.; and W. E. Flint, also of Port Chester. Deputy United States District Attorney Regan asked the court to give Woodcock a penitentiary sentence, but Judge Wellborn did not think it advisable.

They Are Satisfied.
So anxious were they to learn the latest election returns, professing to be staunch supporters of President-elect Wilson, R. Dikahay and G. H. Rodgers, given three months suspended sentences some time ago by Police Judge Chambers upon their promise to leave town and never return, roamed back into Los Angeles Tuesday afternoon and a few hours later were locked in the Central Station. The justice committed them to jail for ninety days.

FACTS, FEATURES AND FANCIES FOR WOMEN AND MEN

BY OLIVE GRAY

DAILY BEAUTY HINT: The girl with freckles is given a recipe to try. It will in most instances effect a cure, and less. Two ounces lactic acid, two ounces water. Apply with a piece of absorbent cotton to be at all sensitive, reduce the strength of another ounce of rose water.

My report of Virginia's views as to those young men who are so lavish in their acceptance of hospitality and so sparingly in extending that commodity, has brought forth a shower of commendation from both girls and mamma.

"Both my sons and daughters entertain very freely," writes one mother, "and the house is open at all times to the friends of the young people and I have been unable to conceal from them the fact that the negligence of a young man's people's friends, or where it could offend, but it has given me considerable thought. I would make our home their rendezvous never extend hospitality to others, as I would then think that possibly they were prudently frugal with their means as young people are sometimes obliged to be; but when, after accepting the shelter of our roof and being welcomed to our board time after time, they take other young girls to the theater and upon cutting trips, and never think of inviting my girls, I naturally am set to wondering why. I know my girls are modest and well-behaved and that they dress as well as do those of their associates, so there can be no real reason for neglecting them. I have wondered if it is not a mistake to offer frequent entertainment to young men of today, since they seem to get the idea that they are so great a source of pleasure to us that they will do nothing in return. In fact, some of them are so run after, that I think it turns their heads. Or perhaps I am too severe. It is possible that when their attention is called to the matter they will take warning and I am glad that you have sounded the note."

At the Leather Counter.
New hand bags had just arrived when I visited the leather goods counter in one of the Broadway stores and such pretty articles were in the cases that I could scarcely resist myself away. There were the new pointed bags, coming to a peak at the top and opening in display, right at hand in a side pocket, instead of in the dismal depths when you can never find them; the small trinkets and the coin purse, I was tempted to get the idea of the engraved leather bag, but these bags have converted me. You see, with a pointed bag, you can relegate to the depths, to the basement as it were, those large articles which cannot possibly get lost, and with the necessities anchored right in sight that they cannot get far away, one will not need that chart which I have long been threatening to draw up for the hand bag. There was a long hand-wallet of small pin seal, all lined with royal blue velvet and with a pick lock, and this is meant for use by a lady burglar who wishes the pick lock to be a watch, a small electric light, and when returning late from the club, when key-holes are dim and house numbers are difficult to find. In plain prose, it is to turn on just before you arrive at the important destination and wish to take one last look into the vanity mirror to see if your nose has the proper dull finish to it. There is a flash of dash of powder and all is over. I mean the matter is all over your nose.

Robbed Sleeves.
"Well, I declare!" exclaimed a lady as she looked in the window of one of the exclusive dry goods houses on Broadway. "If they haven't taken to robbing the sleeves! See that cloak, it is sure enough. There was a perfectly stunning wrap, with the what-I-like sleeves pinned closely to a hand for all the world as were the 'hobbit' skirts."

There do you suppose the arms are expected to be kept?" asked the proprietor as she peered and peered. "That isn't just like fashion!" exclaimed the onlooker. "No sooner are our feet set free than she begins to cripple us somewhere else! The idea of having your arms held so Handy! In the light of the day, every 'up' class a tiny pin can be both a help and a hindrance. The help is in the fact that it keeps the arms from being too tight. The hindrance is in the fact that it keeps the arms from being too loose. The help is in the fact that it keeps the arms from being too tight. The hindrance is in the fact that it keeps the arms from being too loose.

TAFI AND MEXICO.

As time passes and the acerbities of the late political contest shall be healed and forgotten, justice will be done to William Howard Taft. If he had been governed by personal ambition, if he had availed himself of the opportunity to plunge this country into a war with Mexico, he could probably have secured re-election.

ENOUGH.

We like to think well of people as far as possible, but why did the late lamented W. Shakespeare ever invent his kind of play? The charming society women of one of the most delightful suburbs of this city have organized themselves into a dramatic club and "A Midsummer Night's Dream" will go on dreaming in spite of the world.

SOMETHING COMING.

The plan submitted to the Board of Public Works for a reduction plant by which to handle sewage and all waste material is one to command consideration. At the same time no city of magnitude can afford to ignore its debt to the soil. Men cannot go on harvesting forever and not make a concerted effort, backed by scientific methods, to return to the land as much of the humus as possible.

SOMETHING TO CONTEMPLATE.

Spokane is giving an apple show. This is nothing to California because this State is the fruit basket of the world. Yet the announcement becomes fascinating with the additional information that, apple pies are to be baked in 16 pot eighteen feet high. O you who have sweetened pots in the days when the lid was less tight upon Los Angeles pause in your vivid wealth gazing careers long enough to consider what an eighteen-foot pot would be worth!

STRENGTH TALK.

Preaching is often had, seldom to the point and usually out of place. Let us, therefore, doff our hats in high respect to the Mayor of Pasadena, who had the courage and the wisdom to stand in the presence of the lovely members of the Young Women's Association of his city and declare that they were overexcited and, to a degree, poisoning themselves by the use of excessively strong coffee. We have yet to hear, however, that the Mayor introduced the most powerful argument against this deadly drink. He neglected to tell them of its havoc-working effects upon the complexion!

NO ESCAPE.

Railroad men say that the winter rush to Southern California has begun earlier this year and promises to be greater than ever before in the history of the State. None of us mind the coming of these visitors, but when they get here they stay. Nor does it end here. After they have been in Los Angeles six weeks they are ready to swear that they are native sons and they proceed to amass wealth and enjoy other privileges as if they had a right to them. Surely those of us who have been here for an entire three months and even longer have a right to resent this almost daily appropriation of our city by a brand new set of boosters. The only way to come safely and avoid the rush in a city like Los Angeles is to arrive before the tourists have been selected, and it might be better to come before the continent on which it is located has been discovered. Oh, you early bird, what show have you in a land where the hustlers never sleep?

COPPER DIVIDENDS.

The financial reports in the Boston journals show that the advance in the price of copper has reached the shareholders in the companies having their principal offices in Boston, Miami and Greene. Shannon has resumed dividends after five years' absence. Calumet & Hecla will pay the largest dividend for any year since 1907. Quincy and Ah Meek have also declared larger dividends.

It is to be hoped that copper will not again be forced to 25 cents. It was an unnatural price that stimulated unnecessary production and diminished natural consumption. Users can afford to pay 17 cents and owners of mines can grow wealthy producing it at that price.

WHITE ESKIMOS.

Going back is always an easier process than going forward. Eternal motion is necessary to combat the process of reversion in nature. Evidently given sufficient pluck and desolate surroundings an advanced race can go speedily back to primitive darkness. Such at any rate appears to have been the fate of the White Eskimo discovered by Explorer Stefansson in the Arctic wilderness. His partner, Dr. Anderson, surmises this white tribe to represent the survivors of the Sir John Franklin expedition lost in this latitude in 1846.

If this be true it is a startling example of the rapidity of nature and the slowness of man. Seventy years of icy desolation has destroyed the civilized germ that it required two thousand years of gradual progress to develop. For these white Eskimos have no records, no history, no hope, no religion and hardly any language. Truly the price of progress is eternal action.

Notice any fall in the high cost of living since the election of Woodrow Wilson? No? Oh, well, you won't either.

THE FIELD AND THE OUTLOOK.

The Democrats have carried the country. Whosoever fault it may be that the principles of the Republican party have been utterly rejected and, for the present at least, reflected to the limbo of things lost on earth, such is the fact, and it is a condition and not a theory with which the people of this nation have now to deal.

No definite determination upon any subject of legislation may be expected from the present Congress, or until the assembling of the next Congress, which, unless the incoming President shall call an extra session, will not take place until December, 1913.

In the next Congress there will be an overwhelming Democratic majority. There will be a strong, and it may be a dominant, majority eager to enact experimental legislation of an advanced type on many subjects. Whether the conservative Democrats, allied with the few Republicans who have escaped the effects of the political cyclone, will be able to check the radical majority remains to be seen. We may expect great changes in the tariff. We may not hope to defeat a tariff for revenue only, and a discontinuance of the policy of protection to American industry. The solid South will call for this. The New England States, the Middle States and the Middle-West States will echo the call. The wise plan of President Taft of empowering a commission to make full and careful investigation and recommend a tariff based upon the difference between the cost of production at home and abroad will probably not be pursued. Each section of the country, whether represented by Democrats or otherwise, will probably seek to guard its own interests, and bargaining and trading will be the order of the day. We shall be fortunate if we escape the unfortunate conditions which followed the Democratic landslide of 1892. Those conditions were not so much the offspring of what Democratic Congressmen and Senators did as of what they had promised to do and of what the manufacturing and commercial interests believed they would do.

The trusts, which feared Taft's enforcement of the Sherman law, and which favored Roosevelt in order to defeat Taft, will doubtless use their influence to prevent legislation that might bring them to book. They may be able to prevent the passage of drastic laws against them, and they may not.

There may be an active contest with respect to radical industrial legislation. While the Progressives were most active in promising to place the manufacturing industries of the country in the control of the labor unions, there was a strong, though not very strongly expressed, inclination in that direction in the Democratic platform. It is impossible to intelligently predict exactly what the Democratic party will do, or leave undone, with respect to these different issues. It may be radical; it may be conservative; for power has a tendency to make its possessors conservative. We do not know whether six months from now we shall be as prosperous as we have been for three years under the wise and conservative administration of President Taft, or whether we shall be in the throes of a panic, as in 1893. It were idle to deny that we shall have a dose of experimental legislation, and experimental legislation has never been otherwise than disastrous, for a time at least, to any community living under it.

It is on the whole fortunate that the vote of California since it could not be cast for Taft, was given to Wilson. It will incline the Democratic majority in Congress to listen more kindly to the plea of California for the preservation of her citrus, sugar and wool industries.

The Bull Moose fell down in California, pawing the innocent earth in his death agony, and others of his antlered herd fell down with him. It was well!

Beaten in his own precinct, beaten in his own city, beaten in his own county, beaten in his own State, beaten in the nation generally—how is that for "Hill"?

WILL TURKEY DISAPPEAR?
 Since Serbia and Bulgaria have thrown off the Turkish yoke they have organized limited monarchies with representative governments, and their example has been contagious—creating a spirit of unrest among the people of their Turkish neighbors. The present war is not a sudden and unprepared outbreak of hostilities. Turkey is a large element in European Turkey that has for years chafed under the despotic rule. Having close commercial relations with Serbia and Bulgaria they have seen the great advantage resulting from their free institutions, how their growth and development have been stimulated since their severance from Turkish rule, and they have secretly longed to be similarly divorced from the same despotic power.

Their neighbors, through a secret interchange of views, have been aware of these sentiments, and in order to take advantage of the situation have formed an alliance embracing the four bordering nations of Greece, Montenegro, Serbia and Bulgaria for the purpose of acquiring portions of the Turkish territory adjoining the respective countries. In one sense then it was a war of conquest, but based upon the belief that the territory to be annexed, as well as their own people, will be greatly benefited by such a change in their government. Now that the prospects of success seem likely to crown their efforts the question arises, How shall the newly-acquired territory be parcelled out?

If left to the parties immediately concerned the matter would be easily adjusted. Albania would be awarded to Greece, Scutari to valiant little Montenegro, Kosovo and Monastir to Serbia, and the remainder of the Turkish provinces up to the neighborhood of Constantinople to Bulgaria. So far, so good, but again the still more perplexing question arises: What shall be done with Constantinople? It is the absorbing problem upon the solution of which the future peace of Europe hangs.

All the western powers are deeply concerned about the final settlement of this momentous question, but there are two nations—Great Britain and Russia—who regard every move that is being made with jealous eyes, and to whom its final adjustment will be of vital consequence.

The final solution might be something like this: Let Constantinople, together with a small area of adjacent territory, say from 500 to 1000 square miles, be set apart as an independent free city under the joint control of the great powers. It would have its own autonomy and be ruled by a nominal King and local Parliament, but subject, so far as military and naval armaments and fiscal arrangements are concerned, to an advisory board representing the great powers. This would of course mean the complete elimination of Moslem rule from Europe.

But there is another and perplexing complication in the European situation which cannot be ignored. England, France, Germany and Russia have already conferred together and invited Austria to the conference. But Austria has held aloof though she is vitally interested in the Balkan situation and the results of the war. She has not hitherto stood as one of the great signatory powers, though by courtesy she has been allowed to participate in European conferences.

By her union with Hungary Austria both gained and lost prestige. The two countries were not completely merged into one nation, and Hungary, which is more Slav than Teuton, retains a distinct autonomy and could cover the Austrian union by an act of her own Parliament. Hungary is not without ambitions of her own and if she could annex or form a close union with the Baltic states, with which she is more closely allied racially than with the Germanic people of Austria, and thus form a strong independent Slavic government with large territory and population, the dream of her own people and that of the Balkan states would be realized.

Austria is well aware of these sentiments and ambitions and is regarding the present rapid, almost kaleidoscopic movements in the Balkan struggle, and the probable disappearance of Turkey from the map of Europe, with keen anxiety and absorbing interest.

What would be the attitude of Germany in such an event? It is said that the Kaiser would look with complacency upon the separation of Austria and Hungary, for then he would presently find a pretext for absorbing Austria into the great Germanic confederation, thus making Germany the dominant power of Europe. But these speculations are secretly indulged and are not even hinted at in the diplomatic discussions, relative to territorial assignments and adjustments in connection with the outcome of the Balkan war.

UNCLE SAM, PHILANTHROPIST.
 Although this is undoubtedly an optimistic age, we are still prone when we discover a fly in the ointment, to condemn the ointment instead of removing the fly. Socialists have stamped the country persuading the easily-misled and misled, forming the easily-permeated and misled, the United States today is being exploited by a favored few in the interest of high prices and excessive profits. Nearly 90,000,000 Brutes—so they tell us—are peeping about Caesar. "If it were so it was a grievous fault and grievously must Caesar answer it." In fact, if it were so Caesar would have answered for it long ago. It is an insult to the common sense of the American people to suppose that 90,000,000 intelligent beings would allow a handful of financial geniuses to rob them of their power under the Constitution.

Yet until they are deprived of that power no Caesar can trample on the rights of a single American man, woman or child. Socialists profess to believe that "the system" or "big business" or some undefined, inscrutable monster has made itself, by some mysterious or dark agency, greater than the expressed will of all the people. Therefore the people must have been hypnotized into expressing, not their own will, but that of the supposed inimical "system." Which infers that the American nation is composed of 90,000,000 fools.

Let any bewildered one study the facts a little and he will discover that the United States government, far from being an instrument in the hands of the few, is a co-operative association for the benefit of the many. No nation in the world has been blest with so many philanthropic and altruistic laws as the people of America. Just take our educational system as an example. Is this one of the "systems" socialism would overthrow? It is the biggest in the country.

Here annually, on primary schools alone, Uncle Sam spends over half a billion dollars. Add to this the sum expended for high schools, polytechnics, night classes, etc., and you will find that Uncle Sam spends nearly a billion dollars a year to educate the people, and so teach them how to lay this mysterious ghost that is supposed to paralyze the popular will. Millionaires do not as a rule send their children to the public schools. That perhaps is why millionaires' sons seldom average up with their fathers. Is this one of the "systems" socialism would overthrow? It is the biggest in the country.

"Gold Bricked."

Si (Geo. W.) Perkins, to Date.

We stood at Armageddon and "Battled for the Lord," but took to the tall timber when the final assault came.

like this: Let Constantinople, together with a small area of adjacent territory, say from 500 to 1000 square miles, be set apart as an independent free city under the joint control of the great powers. Perhaps, after all, it is because virtue is so smooth and easy, so like a pretty landscape filled with fruits and flowers, that the perversity of human nature inclines the foolish and discontented to hunt for sin on shiny, slippery boulders or in burning desert sands. Virtue was too easy for Adam and Eve; they blamed it onto the apple, we blame it onto the primrose.

The triumph of Christianity over Hebraism, Buddhism or Petchism is that it teaches people how to be happy through virtuous. Even Mark Twain's pleasant "Be good and you'll be lonesome" won't stand analysis. The most lonesome being earth is the burglar. A violet by the river's brim isn't a simple violet to him, and nothing more; it suggests the blue uniform of the pursuing officer. Never a primrose staves the fearful feet of the bank defaulter; memories do not represent the thoughts of the ruined gambler or heartless memories of the convict. The scent of the rose, the perfume of the honey-suckle is stifled in an atmosphere of tobacco smoke, sweat and beer fumes. Not a single flower or plant or weed has any place in the so-called primrose path of Calvinism, or the classic wreath that surmounts the bloated face of Bacchus.

Very narrow and crooked and rocky are the ways that lead to perfection, and to the only an infinitesimal minority are foolish enough to tread them. Very broad and straight and direct is the highway that leads to heaven, and good people are erring in it and leveling it and widening it with every successive year.

Would you know what the real path of the real primrose is like? It starts in quiet scenes of arduous simplicity, in a spiritual forest of Arden, threaded with tinkling silver streams, very narrow, almost hidden in their mossy banks; bluebells and cowslips, violets and daisies peep from the sheltering grasses, and all the woodland dells are toned and softened with rare primroses. Through the checked shade of spreading oak, startled elm and graceful beech, nodding to the summer breeze, the sunshine flickers in a thousand changing patterns; each onward mile the path grows wider and clearer, the landscape nobler and more poetic, till in a blaze of sunshine the highway reaches to the gates of pearl before the Father's house of many mansions.

And from start to finish the emblem of thines pure and sweet is the flower, maled by the Calvinist, and still associated allegorically with things not pure and not desirable—primroses—fit flowers to strew before the feet of little children or to twine about the shining brows of angels.

Serbs Are Peasant People.
 [London Chronicle:] The inhabitants of the Balkan provinces are not the warlike, ferocious people that popular imagination in this country is apt to picture them. The Serbians, for example, are a genuine simple peasant folk, whose home life might be copied with advantage by the populations living under the rule of the great powers of Europe. The Serbians practice the art of co-operation, while civilized people are learning its elements. Every little homestead in Serbia is a family commune, while in some of the mountain districts exists the sadrica, or communal village, where everything is held in common, and where the oldest man is the guide and commander and final authority as to the mating of the people in his district.

 [Saturday Evening Post:] It was a very hot day and the fat drummer who wanted the 12:30 train got through the gate at just 12:21. The ensuing handicap was watched with absorbed interest both from the train and from the station platform. At its conclusion the breathless and perspiring knight of the road wearily took the back trail and a vacant-faced "red cap" came out to relieve him of his grip.

"Miser," he inquired, "was you tryin' to catch that Pennsylvania train?"
 "No, my son," replied the patient man, "No; I was merely chasing it out of the yard."

I'm happiest when I'm saddest, I'm at my best when feeling punk, and I exult when storms are maddest, the elements upon a drunk. The sunshine grows so stale and weary when it's delivered weeks on end! How comforting the heavens dreary that like a pall above us bend! So let me sit here by the caseament, and groan in peace and weep and sigh, and watch the wraiths grope the basement, and see the funerals go by!

A PATH OF PRIMROSES.

BY HARRY F. BOWLING.

We have not always been happy in our commonest similes. Popular usage has handed us down many phrases that are entirely misleading. To the average newspaper reader a paragraph headed, "the primrose path," undoubtedly suggests a record of money recklessly wasted, of foolish dissipation, of wild orgies ending in disgrace and ruin. To put it more plainly, the primrose path has become a polite simile for the road to hell.

Any intelligent person who stops to consider must sometimes wonder why any flower—least of all the sweet, modest primrose—should be so generally associated with wild nights and wasted days. Flowers are the symbols of innocence—or should be; if any could possibly be singled out as emblems of revelry they should be the flaming peony, the gorgeous bougainvillea or the intoxicating hyacinth, and even then the comparison would be far-fetched.

 To connect these with artificial pleasures and illicit delights! Was ever there more distorted paradox? The Greek poets crowned Bacchus with ivy leaves and so gave us ivy as the symbol of wine bibbing. As the emblem of victory they gave us the laurel. They might just as well have crowned Bacchus with laurels and Victory with ivy leaves as far as any vegetable significance can be attached to either. Perhaps Calvinism is responsible for the "primrose path" with its undesirable ending. For Calvinism delighted in making virtue austere, grim and difficult, and sin bright, easy and alluring. That is why they disliked the primrose. More appropriately they could have condemned the delicate maidenhair fern as the representation of our all-so-delightful sin; for these grow on canyon sides and often bring their ravishers a nasty cropper.

The primrose besides being pale, seeking the shade and dying unmarried—like vestal virgins and cloistered nuns—invariably grows amid beautiful scenes in quiet pleasant glades, in a snake-charming country. The primrose path is supposed to end on the brink of a precipice and is not entirely unconnected with snakes, though they are merely imaginary ones.

Fortunately for Christianity the doctrine that would connect virtue with the bare bones of harsh discouragement and vice with soft feather beds of flowery ease no longer survives, except in the unfortunate metaphor of "the primrose path." We are just beginning to realize the truth of that significant text, "the way of the transgressor is hard." This implies that the way of the law-abiding is easy. Isn't it about time we took down the old worn-out signboard: Keep off the primrose!

Perhaps, after all, it is because virtue is so smooth and easy, so like a pretty landscape filled with fruits and flowers, that the perversity of human nature inclines the foolish and discontented to hunt for sin on shiny, slippery boulders or in burning desert sands. Virtue was too easy for Adam and Eve; they blamed it onto the apple, we blame it onto the primrose.

Pen Points: By the Sea.

It wasn't even close.

Nobody complaining; everybody smiling.

No wonder Eugene Debs did not wear creases in his trousers.

An early winter is promised, but the East, not in sunny, glorious California.

We nominate William Jennings as secretary of the Cocked-Hat Department of the Wilson Cabinet.

"United we stand; divided we fall" was so in the days of the revolution; true in these perilous times.

DUNDEE IS LIKE BRITT

In His Methods of Training for a Fight.

Little Italian Who Is Is Bor Conley.

Van Court Says He Dances Around too Much.

BY DE WIT VAN COURT.

Johnny Dundee, who is matched to box Frankie Conley on November 12, did a neat workout at Jack Doyle's training quarters yesterday afternoon. Johnny, in the way he goes about his work, reminds me very much of Jimmy Britt when he was the champion. He is a fast and fine boxer and takes his training very seriously.

He is a finely built little fellow, and shows strength, endurance and speed from his feet to his well-shaped head. After shipping the rope for three rounds, he punched the light bag for a couple more, then boxed three fast rounds with Louie Reece.

In his boxing he showed plenty of speed, a good punch and was very fast, but did a lot of unnecessary "shot work." He was in and out and hit fast and hard with both hands and boxed at times very much like Frankie Conley.

But is much cleverer than that tough little Italian.

FIRST OPEN AIR.

Scotty Monteth, his manager and trainer, said that this was the first time that he ever trained in the open air and was somewhat worried about his taking cold. As soon as Johnny took a rest, Scotty was there with a big towel that he threw over Johnny's shoulders.

Scotty need not have any fear of Johnny taking cold in the open air as long as he does not let him stand around and chew the rag with his friends. Fresh air never poisoned anybody.

Dundee and Monteth just returned from a vacation trip to "Frisco" and will lay off tomorrow and run down to Venice for an outing.

A LIGHT TRAINER.

Scotty also said that Dundee never went on the road but once, when he was training and that was when he met Johnny Kilbane.

Monteth is an old-time bicycle rider and has a good knowledge of training. "I don't believe in a boxer doing any more than is necessary to get him into condition," said Scotty. "Johnny never dissipates in any manner or form and always takes the best of care of himself and does not need the work. And I am not going to take any chances on his going stale."

The coming match between him and Conley should surely be a corker. They are both willing, game and aggressive.

Scotty said that he expected Harry Carter, a good 135-pound boy, and Young Marino out here next Saturday with Joe Mandot.

Monteth is managing both boys and will try and do something to do while on the Coast. They are both friends of Dundee and Mandot, who will use them for sparring partners.

We will have to hand it to Charlie Kid Dalton for gamesomeness. This morning, when he turned up at Greenwalds without a mark, "Gage" got me on a lucky punch and he won. I was heading him with body punches in the first round and will meet him again and give him a good side bet that I can beat him."

This is always the same old story of a game man.

Frankie Gage has about the best chance of any of the local lightweights to make good. But in his past performances he has shown that he does not like the hard going when it goes against him. When he is winning he can fight like a tiger.

We may be mistaken about him, and hope we are. It may be a lack of gamesomeness or courage. It would be too bad to see such a promising boy, with such a good punch and cleverness not game. We wish you luck, Frankie, and hope we have misjudged you for your own good.

ARE AD'S BETS HURTING CAREER?

(By Federal (Wireless) Line to The Times.)

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 6.—[Special Dispatch.] Friends of Ad Wolgast here declare that the champion's money-mad tactics are fast undermining his value as a fighter.

Wolgast has been in the habit of wagering heavily on himself in all of his big fights and also betting that he will stop his opponent in a certain number of rounds. His anxiety for quick finishes, causing a wildness in his delivery of punches, is declared to have weakened him in the early rounds and the Mandot fight is pointed out as a glowing example of the champion's foolishness.

Battling Nelson bet heavily on himself in all his championship battles, but Nelson always bet on the ultimate result, causing no worry, while Wolgast bets on the number of rounds.

The End Around End Play.

Quarterback Crawford is passing the ball to Kikrikpatrick, who is about to circle the right end. Sam McClung is leading the Oxy backs in the interference. Notice the splendid form of the backs as they are charging for the opposing defense.

WOLGAST'S THANKSGIVING DAY FIGHT CALLED OFF.

SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "Ad Wolgast, New Orleans Postponed match until New Year's Day. In the meanwhile will endeavor to match Burns and Ritchie, or Tommy Murphy, and use winner with champion. Or will give you Mandot if he beats Rivers."

"JAMES W. COFFROTH." The above telegram, dispatched this evening, means that the local promoter will not show Champion Ad Wolgast in San Francisco on Thanksgiving Day, as has been planned. The reason is that Coffroth could not find a suitable opponent to send in against the sturdy little lightweight kins.

With Mandot tied up with an engagement with Joe Rivers in Los Angeles on Thanksgiving Day, Coffroth decided that he would have to set to work in order to develop an opponent, and so it is that the attraction has fallen flat. "In taking this action," says Coffroth, "I am only protecting myself. I have guaranteed Wolgast a pretty big sum. The amount has not been made known, but I will say that it is a large one. I would have to find an attractive opponent for Wolgast in order to make the show pay. Frankie Burns is more than anxious to meet the champion, but he would not make a big enough card. I might put on Ritchie, too, but I doubt very much if he would draw the house. "Mandot would make a suitable opponent, but he is not available. Before the New Orleans match was made I wired Mandot offering him the date, but he replied that he was so confident of beating Wolgast decisively that there would be no need of his meeting the champion again. He went ahead and arranged the Rivers match and so it leaves the lightweight field rather barren of material."

AEROPLANE AND MOTOR CAR READY FOR BIG RACE.

BY BERT C. SMITH.

DETAILS of great aeroplane automobile race: Starts this morning at 7 o'clock.

Cadillac will start from First and Broadway.

Fowler's aeroplane will start from Griffith Park Aviation Field, and circle the Empire Theater before coming to the starting point.

Route—Up the valley via Bakersfield and Fresno to San Francisco.

Controls—Bakersfield and Fresno.

Distance—150 miles.

Finish—Exposition Grounds, San Francisco.

Pilot S. A. McKee will act as pilot for Fowler.

The car which Soules will use is the Cadillac that finished second in the Los Angeles-Phoenix race. The car reached here from Phoenix yesterday and while there was no time to do any work on the Phoenix racer Soules says the machine was in good shape when he reached the end of the race and he will be able to get through safely.

Fowler's trip is financed by the Sullivan and Condit Vandevelte circuit. He is to appear at the Empire Theater Sunday night in San Francisco and takes this means of getting there.

It was decided at the conference yesterday that Fowler will be permitted to make two stops for which the time will be deducted from his running time.

Instead of stopping at Bakersfield Soules will take on fuel and continue on his journey northward. As it was feared that Fowler would be unable to use this fast-flying motor car as a guide, should he lose his bearings, S. A. McKee, who entered his Cadillac in the Phoenix race for the fun of it, and took fifth place, will make the trip as a pilot car. McKee's machine will be covered with a white canvas so it can be seen from a great height. He will also carry smoke bombs to use in case of emergency. McKee will also carry supplies for Fowler and will be ready to go to the aviator's assistance should his help be required.

BAD ROADS. Latest reports on road conditions point to a stormy journey for the motor cars. The streams in the San Francisco Canyon are high and the road over the Tejon pass has been ploughed up and Soules will find it no highway for speed.

After getting into the air Fowler will circle over the city, passing directly over The Times building, where the Cadillac will be waiting to start the second aeroplane hovers over the racing car.

KID WILLIAMS MAKES SUCKER OF BILLY FITZ.

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 6.—[Special Dispatch.] Kid Williams of Baltimore defeated Billy Fitzsimmons of Yonkers in a ten-round bout tonight at the Fairmount A.C. Williams had the better of the bout and won by a knockout in the second round.

The second ten-round bout George Kirkwood of St. Louis easily defeated Fatsy Kline of New York. The St. Louis fighter earned the honors in eight rounds. Kline had only the better of one round. The other rounds were even. Two knockdowns were scored in the third round.

AD BOYCOTTS HOBO DOUGHERTY.

(By Federal (Wireless) Line to The Times.)

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 6.—[Special Dispatch.] Unless Hobo Dougherty pays Ad Wolgast $200, the amount which the lightweight champion declares his former trainer owes him, the Hobo person will not be permitted to train any fighter who is matched to meet Wolgast.

The champion is bitter at the camp secrets which he declares Dougherty tipped off to Mandot before the latter tragedy and vows that a part of the articles for every fight in which he engages in the future will be that Hobo cannot train his adversary. This embargo will be taken off only when Dougherty pays the alleged debt.

Something Coming.

OXY HAS TOUGH GAME IN SIGHT.

WILL BE THOROUGHLY TESTED IN FIGHT WITH WHITTIER.

Saturday's Battle Should Be One of the Best of the Season—Quakers Must Win It or the Oxy of the Running—Boys from the Country May Try Many Trick Plays.

BY OWEN K. BIRD.

Darkness had fallen last night before Coach Pipal dismissed his crew of gridiron warriors yesterday with the curt command to take five laps around the track and then turn in.

The Oxy field is alive with action this week, as the day for the game with the Whittier Poets draws near. The Tigers realize that the team will have to show real form to win from the scrapping Friends on Saturday. The Quakers have a fast, tricky team this season, which is dangerous to any squad sent against it, chiefly because of the wonderful ability with the forward pass, which has been displayed by these Quakers in their games so far this season.

In fact the coming struggle should be the best one of the present schedule. The Poets are a far better team than were the Denver University Gladiators, because of speed and aggressiveness. The Tigers, in the game with Denver, did not have to show anything but straight football and speed, but in the coming game they will have to produce all kinds of football from backs to the latest freak play.

POETS STRONG ON PASSING.

On looking over both teams the problem lines up about as follows: Whittier can and will gain on the different forward pass formations and other trick plays, while the Tigers have a little better balanced team, with more veterans and should be able to buck the Quaker line and make ground around the ends, through the work of the fast backs, Foster, McClung and Dill. It is a great thing to have three sprinters in the backfield and that is what Pipal has turned up this season.

The Tiger line is one of the greatest machines ever seen in the south for defensive work and the chances are largely in favor of Oxy on line punning and cross kicking, where Whittier has the ball. The whole matter, as to the final outcome of the game is concerned, will rest with the team which holds the ball the greater length of time. This game will show what the changes in the rules will have done. The Poets and ground on tricks and open formations.

PING BODIE TO THE MINORS.

Fence Buster Has Outlived His Usefulness.

Clark Griffith After Famous College Athlete.

Connie Mack Gets Star Away from Murphy.

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 6.—[Special Dispatch.] Ping Bodie, the fence-buster, who quit bustling fences some months ago, is likely to be sold, traded or sent back to the minors before next season. This is the one position on the White Sox where a new man will be seen next spring. Anybody want a fence-buster? Apply to James J. Callahan or Charles A. Comiskey.

Ping lived up to his reputation earned on the Coast for one season. Then he went back to the Coast and acted as a fence-buster during the winter, came back fat as a pig and the fences were comparatively safe. His bad play in the city series, completed three weeks ago, when he didn't chase a hit, finished his career on the South Side. He was fined and relieved of further responsibility in the series.

Now comes the report that he is to be traded or sent back to the minors. Callahan will have a good crop of outfield material to select from when the Sox start for their training camp at Paso Robles, Cal. In addition to Collins, Mattick and Harry Lord, he will have Jimmy Johnston, who burned up the Southern League, and several other minor-leaguers of ability.

CLARK GRIFFITH'S COLLEGE SHORTSTOP.

(By Federal (Wireless) Line to The Times.) CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 6.—[Special Dispatch.] Clark Griffith has the promise of Fenelon, the great Princeton athlete, that he will give the Senators first call on his services when he finishes college this year, if he decides to enter professional baseball.

Fenelon is a crack shortstop and Griffith thinks he will make good.

CUBS LOSE GOOD PITCHER.

(By Federal (Wireless) Line to The Times.) CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 6.—[Special Dispatch.] Connie Mack has secured one of the promising young pitchers on the Chicago Cub list through President Murphy's ignorance of new rules concerning drafted players. Pitcher Ensign Cottrell, a left-hander who was drafted from Scranton, Pa., is the player in question. The Cubs asked for waivers on several of their youngsters in order to be in a position to negotiate trades and inadvertently Cottrell's name was included in the list.

A drafted player upon whom waivers is asked cannot be recalled. Murphy did not know this and Connie Mack put in a claim and got the youngster.

DAVENPORT DEFEATS BARNES AT BILLIARDS.

E. H. Davenport won the first round of his match against E. Barnes for the amateur championship in pocket-billiards and the Malesale cup, by the score of 200 points to 174. Barnes played in hard luck, making fourteen scratches during the game, nearly all of which were costly. In spite of his unlucky start, Barnes is considered capable of making the 800-point match an interesting affair.

The second round of 200 balls is set for tonight at the Majestic pool on South Hill street.

JOE RIVERS AND ABDUL BEGIN TRAINING TODAY.

This Will Be the Supreme Test of the Mexican's Hope of a Fighting Future—He Would Rather Fight Wolgast Than Mandot Who Is Puzzling and Difficult for Him to Handle.

JOE RIVERS will cut his airy life of ease this morning and go to work. His training will begin at once for the Mandot-Rivers fight on Thanksgiving Day.

Both Joe and his manager, Joe Levy, fully realize that this is Rivers' last chance. If he does not make good in a striking way with Mandot, it is curtains and a long farewell.

To the end that his condition will be everything that it ought to be, all the frivolous young boys have been unheeded from the Mexican's camp and the work of training will go under the supervision of Abdul the Turk.

Abdul is the humorist of the local boxing world, but he is a faithful, intelligent trainer. If anybody in the world can send Rivers into that ring in tip-top condition it is the Sultan.

He has trained many of the former fighters in the ring, and has won a great deal of money for his clients. He is always confident of his trainees and never gives up any trouble as he never smoked or drank or gambled. The only trouble with him was his fondness for running off and trading in real estate in the midst of training.

Abdul says that if Rivers will do his share, Mandot will be whipped next time. "I will never leave Rivers—day or night," he says. "I will bring him into that ring in the best condition of his life."

Joe Levy is frank in saying that Rivers would rather meet Wolgast than Mandot. "Rivers feels more confident of being able to beat Wolgast than any other," he says. "I ever heard of a man who was so sure of himself as Joe. He is sure that he can beat Wolgast."

Two Accounts.

JOE RIVERS AND THAT NEWHALL ROUGH-HOUSE.

THE town of Newhall is all worked up over Joe Rivers, who is alleged to have participated in a rough-house at a dancing party in Newhall on Halloween.

Constable William Bowman came down from that town yesterday bringing with him the following statement, which he said was prepared at the instance of the business men of the town:

"This is a rough sketch of the trouble at the schoolhouse, without any exaggeration."

"It was just a children's party, none of them being invited. Joe Rivers was slightly acquainted with some of the girls and went over to show them the latest stunts in dancing."

"Dancing before the children such as the 'Tango', 'Tommy', the 'Bunny Hop' and other rattle dances."

"When they first entered, one of them was heard to remark, 'Keep your heads on your watches and if they start anything we will clean the bunch.'"

"While some were dancing, others amused themselves by throwing candy, even the pigskins taking a hand in this. A stray candy struck one of the self-invited visitors, which gave them the chance they were looking for, to cause a row. One of the boys was seen outside on the porch when Joe Rivers and his four supposed trainers walked out, one of them saying, 'Who three that ready?'"

"One of the Newhall boys said, 'One wants to know, one of the girls said, "When you monkey with us you ain't a monkey" with farmers.'"

"With that he struck the boy in the face and turned as if to strike the other boy next, who beat him to it, getting in two good hits, when another one of the interlopers came up, making two against one, and that was a schoolboy."

"They dug into this boy. One struck him in the mouth and forehead and knocked him all the way down the flight of stairs, using the foulest language as loud as he could hear several parodies."

CONSTABLE'S STATEMENT.

Constable Bowman stated that he had no feeling against Rivers, but that he investigated the circumstances and found them to be as follows:

Rivers and some of his trainers came down from the hotel that night to a dance that was being given at the town hall. After dancing with each other for a few minutes, they were informed that it was a private party and were asked to leave. They went to the schoolhouse.

Bowman says his information is that some of the schoolboys, resenting the actions of the prize-fighters in the party, began throwing candy. Fighting then began. One boy, Lewis Miller, was badly beaten. He said the rural justice of the peace came down from the hotel that night to a dance that was being given at the town hall. After dancing with each other for a few minutes, they were informed that it was a private party and were asked to leave. They went to the schoolhouse.

STANFORD-BERKELEY GAME.

Very Confident. Selections Due.
FINAL SLASH IN BERKELEY SQUAD. STANFORD TO PICK MEN TODAY.
EIGHT OF THE BLUE AND GOLD PLAYERS FROM SOUTH. CANDIDATES DO FINAL WORK ON SLOPPY FIELD.

Fish of Los Angeles Will Be Seen at Breakaway While Three Pomona Men Are Possibilities—Blatant Past Two Days Made Field Muddy, But Practice Has Been Kept Up.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
BERKELEY, Nov. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Stanford football squad held its last practice of the season today. Tomorrow the fifteen men who will contend against California at Berkeley on Saturday will be chosen by Coach Presley from the squad of sixty men and the fifteen fortunate players will appear on Stanford field for the last time this year. In the new traditional Cardinal jerseys and white knickerbockers which they will wear in the big game.

The practice today consisted principally of work on line and passing. A light rain fell throughout the afternoon and the field was muddy.

Although the variety team is to be picked tomorrow, many places on the fifteen are in doubt. Nobis, the crack back, has been out of the game for three days on account of an injured knee, and it is now doubtful whether he will get into the game Saturday. Al Frank is also in bad shape and is undoubtedly will be unable to play. Presley has a big bunch to choose from and he may not select anybody who is not in perfect shape.

Only three substitutions are allowed in the big game.

Nothing on the game is at even money. It is generally conceded that there is little to choose between the teams. Rainy weather will favor California as it will come within the letter of the law, as this will be the last chance at the southern title, the Quakers having lost to Pomona after a hard and unlucky struggle.

Coach Wilson has been working the Poles hard this week and at the present time has the team in perfect physical condition and faster than ever before.

With all these elements entering into the game the odds of the coin at the opening of the battle on Saturday will mean a lot. Both teams want the ball. I do not think that the Quakers are quite as strong a football team, as is the Tiger band, but when a team has several stars on its list and is given the use of fake formations something unlooked for is likely to happen every minute.

When the Tigers first go on the defense, the defense will be great, for if the speedy Oxy half-backs, Foster and McClung, are able to break up the first three passes, tried by the Quakers, the game should be an uphill fight for the Whittier men, but if Mr. Wilson's men get away for long gains on the first attempt the play will like a football game, as is the Tiger band, but when a team has several stars on its list and is given the use of fake formations something unlooked for is likely to happen every minute.

Two years ago the Tigers went to Hadley Field for a game with Whittier and lost by a score of 9 to 0. After one of the hardest fought games of the year, the Tigers were disappointed to win and the fact that they could do nothing with the Quakers was a bitter pill. This season the Oxy team is going to the Whittier field to revenge the former game, while the Poles are confident that they will be able to hold Occidental on the home ground.

The Tiger team is in good condition at the present time, but will have to go into this game without Duffy Seay, who is out of the game on account of his work last night looks as though he would be able to produce the goods in the style.

CHESS NOTES.

Through losing his game in the third Southern California correspondence tournament, which was held at San Diego, Harry Leipsch has failed to hold his lead in the contest. He is now second, while the latter has scored two more games in his new completed schedule. Leipsch has won nine and lost two, while Hansen and Leipsch have each won seven and lost two.

Hansen has been matched against C. H. Lemberger of Craftonville, Joseph Kays of Redlands and C. M. Thompson of Los Angeles in the fourth tournament. The game won from Leipsch was resigned after six or seven moves.

WHAT FOOTBALL PLAYERS EAT.

Diet will cut a big figure in the training of the Rugby teams that are to meet next Saturday. Owing to the furious pace at which the game is played, perfection of wind and condition is demanded.

Following is a menu which serves for one day:

BREAKFAST.

Mush or cereal, little cream. Eggs, steaks or chops broiled. Toast, coffee.

LUNCH.

LIGHT PUDDING.

Milk.

DINNER.

Cream tomato soup. Roast chicken (one to each man).

Joe cream and sponge cake.

JOE PATCHER SHOWS FAST WORKOUT FOR CARD.

BY GRAY OLIVER.

JOE PATCHER, JR., and Vernon McKinney, both 2:51 pacers, were the big attraction yesterday at Exposition Park in their morning workouts and as an indication of the interest taken in these two flyers, no less than 500 lovers of harness racing were at the track yesterday morning to see what these two could do.

There was nothing much shown in the way of speed for both horses were jogged miles in about 2:05, but the many trainers who watched the trials were long in their praise of both horses, and particularly Joe Patcher II. They unite in stating that he is a marvelous racer.

Joe Patcher is the trainer of these two horses in the McKenney string, examined the Exposition Park track yesterday and declared that it was the best he had seen in his life.

If this is the case, there is little doubt that Joe Patcher will show something worth while in the big race card at the park on Saturday.

tions, while the Tigers use a combination of these methods. Coach Pinal is hoping to be able to score many of his best plays in this game, so as to have some brand new stuff to spring on the Pomona boys.

CHESS NOTES.

Through losing his game in the third Southern California correspondence tournament, which was held at San Diego, Harry Leipsch has failed to hold his lead in the contest. He is now second, while the latter has scored two more games in his new completed schedule. Leipsch has won nine and lost two, while Hansen and Leipsch have each won seven and lost two.

Hansen has been matched against C. H. Lemberger of Craftonville, Joseph Kays of Redlands and C. M. Thompson of Los Angeles in the fourth tournament. The game won from Leipsch was resigned after six or seven moves.

WHAT FOOTBALL PLAYERS EAT.

Diet will cut a big figure in the training of the Rugby teams that are to meet next Saturday. Owing to the furious pace at which the game is played, perfection of wind and condition is demanded.

The Berkeley football men retire at 10:30, and are up for breakfast at 7:30. Most of the men sleep outside.

Following is a menu which serves for one day:

BREAKFAST.

Mush or cereal, little cream. Eggs, steaks or chops broiled. Toast, coffee.

LUNCH.

LIGHT PUDDING.

Milk.

DINNER.

Cream tomato soup. Roast chicken (one to each man).

One vegetable, baked potatoes.

Joe cream and sponge cake.

Milk.

Revering the possibility of what Dan Patcher II may do, such well-known trainers as Bob Smith, driver of Sweet Marie; George Spencer, who drove Joe Patcher in Phoenix; Frank Childs, Hailmont's driver; Vaughn, the owner of Hailmont; George Hagg, driver of the best of the time, Ted Hayes, who drove the $105,000 Astell, is sure that Joe will be at his best.

Joe Patcher was a busy day yesterday for a large number of the racers that are to appear Saturday were out for a workout. Among these were Prince Lok, Neda, Almont, Joe Patcher and Vernon McKinney. Driver James drove one of McKinney's 3-year-olds a quarter in thirty-one seconds, which shows that the track is all right and this is all the assurance the horsemen want for speed.

The race men are all in for the big for all trials and paces for professionals and amateurs and Secretary Delaney thinks that there will be at least six starters in each event, or at least six. Programmers are now being printed for the big day and everything points to the best one-day meet the sports of Southern California have ever seen.

JOE PATCHER SHOWS FAST WORKOUT FOR CARD.

BY GRAY OLIVER.

JOE PATCHER, JR., and Vernon McKinney, both 2:51 pacers, were the big attraction yesterday at Exposition Park in their morning workouts and as an indication of the interest taken in these two flyers, no less than 500 lovers of harness racing were at the track yesterday morning to see what these two could do.

There was nothing much shown in the way of speed for both horses were jogged miles in about 2:05, but the many trainers who watched the trials were long in their praise of both horses, and particularly Joe Patcher II. They unite in stating that he is a marvelous racer.

NO MONEY REQUIRED TO COMMENCE TREATMENT. Many patients have no confidence in their doctor because he demands pay before a cure has been effected, and there are many who have been misinformed about their condition, or through unsuccessful treatment, have become skeptical and think there is no cure for them. I want an opportunity to treat such cases. It makes no difference about the financial part, as I accept pay for my services as being reasonable and so many of my patients are willing and able to pay.

Harry Mestayer, Florence Stone and Forrest Stanley, in one of the big scenes in Paul Armstrong's great play, "The Escape," now in its second week at the Burbank.

GUNPLAY IS THRILLING CLIMAX IN "THE ESCAPE."

PAUL ARMSTRONG has tinkered up the second act of "The Escape" and has launched the play upon its second week at the Burbank. Although, as in many strong pieces, there are serious defects, still the "munch" of the theme strikes at the very heart of modern thought. I believe in that play. It gathers up the question of Eugenics and slams it between the eyes with it. "The Escape" is the cry of the unborn for a square deal.

It seems to me that the American theater world is just ready to listen to this question. I think Mr. Armstrong has put another one over. And I think he thinks so. He attended the performance at the opening of the second week. I sat just under his box and watched his face. Harry Mestayer's stunning performance of the young tough seemed to please him mightily; there were others at whom he bent a black eye as the performance went on. At last, during one scene, he made a sudden agitated dive out of the rear of the box, headed for the stage floor. But, on the whole, he seemed to like it pretty well.

Well, I did, too. Except the second act. But Paul could think it some more in good effect.

From long and bitter experience I am always shaken with alarm when I hear a legislative bill mentioned. I know what it means. The leading lady is going to fix the big guy with a stinky stare and say: "Then you refuse to introduce the bill."

And the big guy says: "I cannot do that even for you; you must not ask it of me."

"Then," says the prominent blonde, "I can never, never be."

The American Football Association, one of the governing bodies of the soccer game in this country, with headquarters in Newark, has started negotiations to bring on a team from Australia in 1914. It is planned to play against teams in many of the big cities of this country and Canada and conclude the tour in San Francisco.

The wrestlers, John Lemm, Switzerland, and Henry Irmlinger, Australia, have signed articles to wrestle the best three falls in the catch-as-catch-can style for $125 to $250 a side. Should no fall be obtained the result will be decided by two judges and a referee. The match is to take place in London before November 18.

Twelve of the fifteen athletic teams of Columbia University were carried off at a loss during the past season. The crew deficit amounted to over $5000. The track team lost $1250 and the swimming and water polo cost $245. Soccer lost $122 and hockey $485. The varsity and freshmen baseball teams and the varsity rifle teams alone came out on the credit side of the ledger.

South Africa sent a squad of twenty-five rugby players to Great Britain who are meeting the strongest teams that can be matched against them. Four test matches will be played. November 22, South Africa vs. Scotland at Edinburgh; November 29, South Africa vs. Ireland at Dublin; December 14, South Africa vs. Wales at Cardiff; and January 4, 1913, South Africa vs. England at Twickenham. Also a match, South Africa vs. France, will be played at Bordeaux on January 11, 1913, after the tour is completed.

At the recent show of the British Bulldog Club at Leeds, there was a general meeting of the Federation of Allied Building Clubs of the United Kingdom. Though the federation is formed primarily to further the interests of the clubs in England, other clubs which have been notified of their admission to membership include the Bulldog Club of France, the Verein, Osterreichischer Bulldog Club, and the South African Bulldog Club.

The federation proposes to draw up or agree upon a uniform standard and description of the pure bred bulldog, which will be free for the use and edification of all lovers of the breed.

Melbourne fanner, the present champion English billiard player, is expected back in London this week from his visit to Australia. He is reported to be willing to give any English player 1000 points in a match of 15,000 for a bet of $500 up to $1250 a side.

As a result of a conference between Eddie Maier, Frank Chance, and a number of former collegians, whose names in their undergraduate days were for much in intercollegiate sports, the baseball game to be played at Washington Park on Saturday afternoon for the benefit of the relief fund of the Assistance League, will be a game of a championship struggle, with yell leaders to supplement the work of the athletes.

The grand stand and bleachers have been assigned to yell leaders—one for the supporters of Hogan's team and the other for Chance's well-wishers. The Hoganites will carry pennants of blue bearing the magic name of "Hogan," and Chance's supporters will carry orange-colored pennants with the name of "Chance" on them.

Harry G. Holabird will lead the "tucky 13," and endeavor to show the members of the California Club in real rooting.

Two bands, one composed of the boys from the McKinley High School, and the Newshores, will escort the players onto the field, and foot between innings during the game. The following line ups have been issued as final and official.

LAMBARDI INSISTS ON YANKEE "MERRY-MERRY."

BY GRACE KINGSLEY.

THE American chorus girl cannot be beaten! So decided Signor Lambardi in a shrewd moment, when he decided to engage the American beauties who beat the ton-ton and kick the festive toe in the chorus at the Auditorium this week.

Usually there's a chorus wished on with Italian opera that has to have its pictures taken by the camera, but you can walk right up and look at Edith Mackey, or Vera Beckins, or Maybelle Markoff, or any of the merry-merry, without taking something first. And when they come down to the footlights and warble—

"They strolled among the shrouded wheat.

When grapes were in season—"

Of course, it's a mere detail—I mention it only as an aside, to fill in space, as it were—but they can all SING! They have all made a real study of real music, and their chorus girls, know the difference between a Wagnerian overture and a "Foddlin'."

It's a bit confusing, to be sure, at rehearsal. When Signor Barbieri, the chorus maestro, who speaks English, calls out: "Pia piano, piu forte, piu vito!" or "Avanti, incominciate!" he might as well be ordering them to dance.

But he's very polite. You think he was inviting them to an ice-cream soda when he tells them to line up a little less like rag dolls.

When an American chorus trainer is doing business he calls out something like this: "Say, girls, come down into the country, you'll like the climate!" or, "Say, is this a chorus or the roll-chair brigade from the old ladies' home?" Frolic, girls, frolic!" or, "This isn't 'Uncle Tom's Cabin,' and you're not cutting all the loe! come down out of the spotlight."

Of course, there aren't any pink-tight-tie effects in grand opera, which is refreshing. Could there be anything more irrelevant than music being up the plot with an Amazon march or a pony skating-rink number? Or anything more confusing than an inquisitive pink and pale-blue chorus that comes in and sympathizes with the heroine just at the critical moment when she is about to breathe her attachment down the prima donna's back, and telling her if she did not love him he would die and then he would be dead?

But I'll tell you a secret. They did hate to move into some of the garrets devoted to her and her number of operas to the minimum number of days.

And I am chaperoning the girls," said the signora, patting the blonde cinnamome rolls of Helen Gray. "Their mothers all told us to take good care of them—didn't they?"

And the girls all said "Yes, signora"—like that—just as if it were an opera.

And I have no doubt they are nice girls—but how could anybody be as innocent as they looked at that moment?

Three American Beauties in the Lambardi chorus.

how she had taught them fifteen operas in twenty days, or twenty operas in fifteen days, I forget which. Anyway, it was the maximum number of operas to the minimum number of days.

This is Ethel Barrymore's last week at the Orpheum, her engagement closing on Sunday night—much to the regret of all. It cannot be extended, but that is no reason why the Orpheum should not keep up its tremendous pace, for its show for the coming week is one of the best bills in its history. All except one act are comedy numbers, which makes for merriment at least. It is to be topped by Joseph Jefferson, Felice Morris and Blanche Bander in William C. de Mille's comedy of the future, "In 1913," a satire on the world in the coming days of the suffragette, when woman dominates and man is relegated to domesticity. Albertina Beach is sending the beauty number, "Le Ballet Classique," from the Metropolitan, New York, with Misses Dominas and Marcel Bronski as solo danseuses, and a corps of girls to assist. Melville and Higgins, in a new act, "Just Married," will be more than welcome, as will "Silver's," the baseball clown, with his one-man team, giving a complete game in pantomime. Billie Weston comes to be heard in a new series of songs by Harry Plana, who accompanies her. She is said to have the ability to "put 'em over" admirably. The Jack Wilson Trio in their impromptu review, Leonard Gautier's superbly animated toy-shop animal act and Mary Elizabeth are remaining.

Cal Stewart, whose phonograph records of the sayings and doings of "Uncle Josh," have made him famous wherever "his master's voice" has been heard, is announced for the coming week at Pantages. Schepp's Circus, with five ponies, nearly a score of dogs, a clever bunch of monkeys, returns after two years' absence in Europe.

Al Ego, a local favorite, returns with Laura Roth (Mrs. Ego) in an acrobatic and comedy act programmed as "Fort Nowhere." The Six American Beauties, dispensers of stinging harmony; Mabel Johnson, ventriloquist, and the Vaya Brothers, Mexican athletes, make up the list.

There will be only one week of "The Woman" at the Mason, strong as that remarkable play is in its appeal. So far it has proved a profound success and efforts have been made to extend the engagement, but without avail.

The coming week the Mason will be dark for the first time this season, but a week from Monday the first big girl show will open there, "The Quaker Girl," featuring Victor Morley with a company of fifty, mostly of the gentler sex, the original New York cast.

Crowds of photo-drama enthusiasts are being attracted this week to the Mozart Grand-avenue theater, where an excellent bill is headed by a two-reel dramatization of Charles Reade's well-known novel, "Put Yourself in His Place." It was many years ago that this story was first given to a fiction-reading public and proved a veritable "best seller." Its theme is thoroughly modern and in its application to photography, this human interest story of capital and labor, with its compelling love element is as fascinating now as when accorded so great a popularity in book form. Other features of this week's programme at the Mozart are of special merit.

Wild animals, shown in surroundings identical with those of their native jungles; their habits and peculiarities interwoven with a story of love and adventure. Introducing Los Angeles' greatest photo-play child actress, "Baby Lillian," will be the center of attraction at Clune's Fifth-street theater, corner Fifth and Main streets, next week, beginning Monday, when the Selig Polyscope Company's animal masterpiece, "Kings of the Forest," in two reels, will be presented.

Mrs. Sarah Bernhardt, in what she terms her greatest success, "Queen Elizabeth," is attracting large audiences to Clune's Grand Theater, corner First and Main streets, where the four-part film production of this great drama is being shown daily from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. Because of the heavy patronage the past week the management has decided to show the pictures for another week.

Residents Form Plan for an Illuminated Drive.

More Fear Is Rampant Among the Voters.

Property Owners Want Poles Removed.

PASADENA, Nov. 7.—A scheme that has been quietly under way for some time came to a consummation last night when R. D. Davis, former president of the Board of Trade, and J. M. Linsner, proprietor of the Pasadena Hotel, and others made an announcement to the city to demolish the poles that are to be erected for the lighting of the new drive from Orange Grove avenue to Huntington drive, and to place a lighted boulevard in its stead. The drive, which is to be a two-way street, will be a boulevard three miles long, which would be a great improvement on the present condition of the road. The drive is to be a boulevard, and the poles that are to be erected for the lighting of the drive are to be removed. SOUTH PASADENA. Nov. 6.—The programme which has been arranged for the concert which is to be given Saturday evening, under the auspices of the Women's Improvement Association, for the benefit of the club-house fund, cannot fail to appeal to music lovers. The numbers will be given by Miss Mary Huntington of Pasadena, vocal soloist, who has just returned from a year's study in Berlin, and Miss Ruth Van Pelt of Los Angeles, the well-known violinist. Telephone rates for the merged telephone companies, so far as applying to South Pasadena, will be practically as at present charged. A telephone on a single party line, $4 per month on a two-party line, $8 per month, which applies to the business section. In the residential section the single party telephone will be $2.45, a two-party telephone, $4, and four-party telephone, $1.50. In Pasadena it is reported there has been some complaint about the new telephone rates, but Manager Anderson contends that the only raise in rates is in cases where obsolete rates were equalized. The former Sunset calls in this city have the prefix of Colorado, while the Home numbers have the prefix of Fair Oaks, and in almost every instance the numeral remains the same as before the merger.

OCEAN PARK NOTES.
OCEAN PARK, Nov. 6.—A. R. Fraser returned from Redwood City last night, after an inspection of his plan for the subdivision of the property. He stated tonight that he would adhere to his intention to do no more building in Ocean Park. "I am tired of fighting," he said. "If I can't sell the pier and frontage, why I suppose my children will have to build on it, and put up with adverse conditions." His son, Earl Fraser, has been keeping an eye out for his father's property since he has been away. A. W. Layne states that he has decided not to accept the offer of Mr. Fraser to go north with him, but will engage in the building business in Ocean Park. The pier is being floated as fast as possible. Mr. Fraser states that he has received no offer for the pier.

REDONDO BEACH. Nov. 6.—A party of business men and automobile enthusiasts of the town made a trip of inspection this morning to look over the route of the projected auto boulevard along the Coast from Redondo Beach to Playa del Rey. The road from here to Shakespeare is macadamized, and from there to Fourteenth street is oiled, but there it ceases and in order to go from here to Venice it is necessary to go to Inglewood and then to the beach. Determined efforts are being made by Redondo Beach, Hermosa, and Manhattan to secure the opening of the road from Manhattan to Playa del Rey and the building of the coast boulevard along this route.

The funeral of Robert D. Costas, the aged father of Mrs. A. T. ### NO SHORTAGE ANTICIPATED.

Long Beach Well Provided Against a Drouth.

Republicans Smile Over the Discomfiture of Moores.

Linsner Is Repudiated by His Former Followers.

LONG BEACH. Nov. 6.—President Craig of the Board of Public Works this morning announced that the new twelve-inch well on the Alamitos land was sure to be a gusher and would care for one-fifth of the city's needs in water without pumping and would relieve any further water shortage. Craig, however, stated that the city was growing so rapidly that the funds of the department were insufficient to meet the demand for new pipe and it would be necessary for the Council to vote a bond issue of $200,000 for the purpose of purchasing the pipe. The department is keeping ahead of the constantly-increasing demands for street improvement. The Council took no action, but will probably consult with citizens before venturing on another bond election, recent attempts having proven unpopular.

WORD A SMILE.
Taft Republicans of Long Beach, who were disfranchised by the State Bull Moose machine are today wearing a smile which refuses to come off and grows larger with each new report of the extent of the landslide. A Republican stronghold, yesterday turned around and supported Wilson to such good purpose that they reduced the Bull Moose claims about two-thirds. In the city, and aided in reducing the Roosevelt majority in Southern California. The most significant thing about today's results is the statement made by several men identified with the Roosevelt party, that they had voted the ticket through motives of party fealty, but consider their duty ended now and will no longer be identified with it as long as the Landmark is in control of Los Angeles politics.

NO INQUEST.
Coroner Hartwell this morning decided that no inquest would be necessary in the case of John Driscoll, who was found dead in his room yesterday, the circumstances indicating strychnine poisoning with suicidal intent. Among Driscoll's effects was an insurance policy for $200 payable to Richard Baker of Long Beach, who, however, cannot be located.

REPORT COMPLETE.
The Charter Revision Committee completed its report last week, but neglected to sign their report and it will be necessary to call the committee together again. A special session of the Council will be held Saturday night to take action on the matter and prepare to call an election if it is deemed wise.

NEWS BRIEFS.
The City Council having found that it will be impossible under the deed of gift to utilize the basement of the Carnegie library for purposes of the city department, this morning instructed the City Clerk to advertise for bids for an annex to the City Hall which will be used by the police department. The cost of the addition will be about $1250.

The resignation of Councilman M. S. Rucker because of interference with his private business, was presented to the Council this morning and was laid over one week, a brother Councilman hoping to convince Rucker to reconsider his determination.

Peter Leiden, who owns a small dairy ranch near Dominguez narrowly escaped death last night, when a Newport flyer hit his wagon at the junction, killed the horse and threw Leiden several feet. He was bruised and cut, but not seriously injured.

Long Beach evidenced her opposition to city and county consolidation very decidedly. She cast 688 votes for the proposition and 1515 against it. The horse racing home rule taxation and county charter amendments were also defeated by a four to one vote.

vote. The free text-book proposition was carried, the vote being 3758 for it and 2184 against.

DOCTOR FIGHTS BANDIT.

Twilight Fracas in Fashionable Residence District Results in Several Shots and Much Excitement.
A revolver was thrust by a hold-up man into the face of Dr. W. F. Kennedy just after sundown last evening near his home at No. 2600 Wilshire boulevard. The doctor did not understand the situation at once and grasped the end of the silk wrapper. He then felt the barrel of the revolver. He immediately grabbed the barrel of the gun and shouted "police."

As he yelled, Dr. Kennedy dragged the footpad toward the center of the street where there was more light. He lifted the silk wrapper, and tried to seize the handle of the gun. The hold-up man fought valiantly and the doctor continued crying for help, but no pedestrians came along to aid.

Finally the footpad wrenched away the revolver and Kennedy started to run. The hold-up man got his baton, and section and fired two or three shots, but without effect. Dr. Kennedy escaped and so did the highwayman.

VENICE.

TO BEAUTIFY SHORE LINE.

VENETIANS PLAN TO CONSTRUCT AN ARTISTIC PROMENADE.

Plan Involves Bulkhead, Broad Walk and Ornamental Lights from Center Street to Playa del Rey. Will Be Financed by Direct Assessment or Under Vrooman Act.

VENICE. Nov. 6.—Mayor C. W. Holbrook announced tonight that the property owners of the Ocean Front from Center street to Del Rey have agreed on plans for the beautification of the shore line by the building of a bulkhead and a twenty-foot promenade walk, with a balustrade and ornamental lights, and that the petition of these property owners would come up at the next meeting. This improvement, if completed according to the plans laid, will be one of the most signal ever begun in Venice, and its effect on property values south of Windward avenue would be great.

It is proposed to complete, either under the Vrooman act or on the district assessment plan, a walk and cement bulkhead similar to that now being completed at Long Beach, a distance of over a mile, at a cost of approximately $35,000. Ornamental lights similar to those used near the beach would be built atop the bulkhead, and stairways leading to the beach will be built.

The property owners of Short Line Beach have realized that once the Moler pier is built, there may be a repetition of the washout of the beach caused by the eddy of the channel current around the pier, which devastated ocean front lots seven years ago, and to remedy which a bulkhead was built just south of the Windward pier. At any rate, the owners of ocean frontage want their shore line made more attractive, and almost every one is enthusiastic for the plan.

NO PAPERS.

Mayor Holbrook says that he has not yet been served with papers in the injunction suit brought against the city by Dr. J. M. White, restraining the city from turning over the Baby Bank property to Abbot Kinney. So far as he is concerned, he states, he will act as directed by the voters at the last municipal election, and deed the property, which is worth $150,000, to Kinney. He says he read in the newspapers that an injunction has been served, but that he had not been officially notified of the court action, and would take no notice of it unless served with the injunction papers. In the meantime, he states, the transfer may be made at any time.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE.

Attendance at the Venice High School has exceeded the 100 mark, and Principal Cree T. Work is appealing to the board for more room for his proteges. The school is occupying the old Venice plunge on the canal, and the voters may be asked in the future to vote bonds in the sum of $200,000 for a new High School.

Are You Sick? Manology Will Cure You

What is MANOLOGY? MANOLOGY is the Gospel of healing. And is to the physical body what Theology is to the spiritual body. MANOLOGY is a balm for every ill. It is the Greatest and most Powerful Curative Agent, performing veritable Miracles in bringing Health to the afflicted. Dr. S. A. Richmond is the author and promulgator of MANOLOGY. His wonderful cures, based on the knowledge of Manology, have attended the people. Professors, Physicians, Ministers of the Gospel and critics of every sort are dumfounded in the presence of his astounding success. Hundreds are being continually cured where others have failed, giving sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf, making the lame walk, and curing every disease that afflicts the human family. Stories of cures hobbling on their crutches under their arms and sounding the praise of the great doctor, are told daily in Los Angeles, and are spread broadcast throughout the land.

Many come on crutches and go away leaping and shouting for joy, thankful that Dr. Richmond has found the key to Manology that beats every known disease. Ear Trumpe, Rheumatism, Asthma, Consumption, Cancer, Kidney Disease, Nervous Disorder, Dyspepsia, Stomach Troubles, Paralysis, Locomotor Ataxia—each and every ailment cured by the wonderful power of Manology healing. Rheumatism, mites away like dew in the light of Dr. Richmond's face.

Wonderful it appears to be according to the testimony of hundreds who have been healed right here in Los Angeles. Dr. Richmond cures all who wish it without money and without price. When asked, "How do you live?" the Doctor replied: "By teaching the laws of life, and by selling literature, lessons and books on MANOLOGY."

Late of Philadelphia, now residing at 730 South Figueroa St., Los Angeles, Cal.—[Advertisement.]

KILLED BY WORK-TRAIN.

Well-dressed Mexican Eying Across Track at Sierra Park Never Knew What Hit Him.

A well-dressed Mexican, evidently from Azusa, was instantly killed at Sierra Park yesterday by a work-train. The man was walking across the tracks at Sierra Park. When struck by the work train, the man was lying across the rails.

The man's clothes had nothing to identify him further than bearing the mark of an Azusa clothier. He was about 45 years of age, of medium build, checked suit with green stripes, light hat and a new pair of black shoes. More than $20 were found in his pockets. His body is at Pierce Brothers' mortuary.

LIQUIDATION SALE

Bankrupt Stock of the Oriental Rug Company

THE RUGS to be disposed of at this sale are positively NOT auction goods; but are a representative collection of Persia's finest weaves, having been brought here for the purpose of opening a high class retail establishment like the ones in Chicago and New York. The financial stringency in Turkey has forced this firm to liquidate their affairs in the United States. I have received positive instruction from their attorneys to sell the entire collection for cash at once.

The Public Service.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The City Council voted unanimously yesterday to form a Municipal Railroad Commission, and turned down the Mayor's plan to make a separate commission.

The Council decided yesterday to refer to the Legislation Committee today the subject of whether the "dry" zone question shall be submitted to the entire city or only to San Pedro and Wilmington.

A large district on Boyle Heights was added to the zone within which only four horses can be kept on one lot, in order to shut out grading camps about to be established.

An application was filed with the Police Commission yesterday by Goddard & Prechac for a liquor permit for No. 111 West Third street—the Levy's Cafe location—from which a permit was taken away last year.

The Public Works Board approved yesterday the plans of the City Engineer for the repaving of Main street from Tenth to Jefferson streets.

COUNCIL SLAPS MAYOR'S PLAN.

UNANIMOUSLY TURNS DOWN HIS HONORARY SCHEME.

Determines That Affairs Connected With Building of Proposed Municipal Railroad to the Harbor Must Be Kept Within Its Own Hands. Mayor Appears Fleece.

The City Council deliberately, by a vote of every one of the eight Councilmen present at yesterday's session, slapped the plan of Mayor Alexander for the appointment of a separate Railroad Commission, empowered with authority to proceed with all affairs connected with the financing and construction of the proposed road.

The Mayor appears much peeved over the result, and indicates that he has not dropped the subject. He may now advocate the formation of an Advisory Board, similar to the Harbor Advisory Board, and the Aqueduct Advisory Board.

When the report of the Public Welfare Committee, recommending that a new Council Committee be formed, to be known as the Municipal Railroad Commission, and to be composed of Councilmen Reed, Williams, Topham, was read, the Council Clerk also presented the Mayor's message, in which he declared against the plan and urged that his original suggestion of a commission be composed of a member of the Harbor Commission, a member of the Public Utilities Board, and a citizen, was also presented, but it was received with a marked lack of enthusiasm.

Councilman Andrews was the first to defend the position taken by the Council. "The Mayor misrepresents the functions of the proposed committee," he said. "The Board of Public Works alone has the power to construct the municipal railroad; but there are an infinite number of affairs and details that must be attended to by some body or committee aside from the actual building of the road—for instance, the acquisition of rights of way to the river bed and for belt-line routes, etc."

"It is not contrary to the law to form this Council Committee, and it is the right thing to do. The other commissions of the city government have all their own affairs to attend to, and the administration is subjected to criticism."

Councilman Reed also spoke in favor of the Council's plan and of turning down the plan of the Mayor. He declared that he also was sure the Mayor misrepresents the situation and that even should a commission be appointed, its recommendations would have to be referred to the Council, so the entire affair might as well be kept within the Council's own hands.

Mayor Alexander said last evening: "The Council seems to think I am laboring under a misapprehension. Well, they will have the opportunity to show me. I felt that the way to make progress is to have a special commission, and that is what I suggested. We've only been to get action on the harbor development work since a special harbor advisory commission was formed, and that may be the wise thing to do now; but it should have power more than that of simply an advisory body. I don't propose to let the municipal railroad project lag."

When asked what steps he would take next, the Mayor declared that he did not intend to let the subject drop.

The Pacific Electric Company made formal application yesterday for the franchise to operate car service on the city line to be constructed on San Pedro street, between Aliso and Ninth streets, in conformity with the notice of sale, which the Council sent to the Public Utilities Commission yesterday forenoon for its approval.

This notice of sale is the same as has been previously outlined, with the exception that provision is made for the Pacific Electric building turnouts at street intersections. Instead of the city constructing them.

The Utilities Board approved the instrument yesterday afternoon, and it will go before the Council next Tuesday, with its recommendation of the granting of a franchise. It is probable that at that time the plans and specifications of the San Pedro street line will also be before the Council for its approval.

HOW MANY SHALL VOTE? "DRY" ONE SUBJECT TODAY.

The City Council was unable to adopt an ordinance yesterday providing for the special election for December 3 on the city charter and other questions, for the City Clerk, Hansley, had not completed the plans for the conformation of precincts. This will be before the Council next Tuesday. Meanwhile the question as to what else shall be submitted to a vote of the people at this election must be settled.

The City Attorney informed the Council yesterday that it has the authority to submit at this election the initiative on the free lunch question.

and that it could submit, for an advisory vote, the subject of the "dry" zone for the harbor town either to the voters of Wilmington and San Pedro or to the entire city.

Councilman Belkouski spoke in favor of limiting the expression of opinion on this subject to Wilmington and San Pedro, citing the consolidation pledges, and he was supported in this argument by Councilman Andrews. Councilmen Topham and Whiffen spoke in favor of submitting the subject to the people of the entire city, urging that this was only justice to all sections that have a direct interest in the expenditure of city funds at the harbor, and that any other action would open the way for submission of questions to various localities instead of working on a comprehensive plan or city policy.

The subject of what shall go upon the ballot and how the "dry" zone question shall be submitted was referred to the Legislation Committee, which will meet this forenoon.

Action Is Deferred.

The Council failed to adopt the amendment to the ordinance providing for the extension of traffic privileges on Wilshire boulevard yesterday. It is proposed to allow light traffic for a distance of three consecutive blocks, but some of the Council take the stand that the extension of the subject was resubmitted to the Streets and Boulevard Committee for further consideration.

Will Check Up Protest.

The negro underlying concern which has been seeking location for some time past and which has been blocked by protests from various quarters, is still difficult. Councilman Reed has secured a location on San Pedro street, between Eighth and Ninth streets, and asked for an extension of the undertaking, but a new protest has been filed and the Council refused to take action yesterday until the frontage on this protest has been checked.

Large District Exempted.

Some "hurry-up" legislation was taken by the City Council yesterday, adding a large area on Boyle Heights to the district within which only four horses may be kept on one lot. This was in response to the plea of a large number of residents of that district who urged immediate action in order to shut out grading camps that they understood were to be located in the district and that would bring in large numbers of horses and mules.

Would Double-track Line.

The Pacific Electric Company made application to the City Council yesterday for permission to double-track its line into San Pedro on the old Traction route. This application was referred to the Board of Public Utilities for its recommendation.

Police Commission's Griev.

The Police Commission instructed the traffic officer yesterday to rigidly enforce the five-minute provisions regarding the standing of trains at Redondo and Main streets. A complaint has been made of trains standing on these tracks for long stretches of time thus blocking the traffic.

The commission granted to the Volunteers of America the right to maintain contributions on various street corners in the downtown district to gather funds for Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners for the poor. A recommendation was made that the City Council modify the city ordinances that Blago Hernandez may be able to obtain a permit for the distillation of essences, hange spirits, etc.

A restaurant liquor license was denied George Brown for No. 307 Hewitt street, and there were two transfers of saloon licenses permitted. One was from Fumeco & Delfino to Delfino & Lombardo for No. 543 Aliso street, and the other was from Pala & Engall to Gerber & Engall for No. 101 Third street. The Pullman Social Club was denied a social club permit.

Louis B. Gyle, holder of a restaurant liquor license at No. 451 South Spring street, was cited to appear to show cause why his license should not be revoked. He is charged with violating the rule of the commission as to selling liquors served in his establishment.

After Liquor Permit. Although only a week has elapsed since the Police Commission revoked the liquor permit held by the Levy's Cafe, owned by L. J. Christopher, an application was made for a new permit for this location, No. 111 West Third street.

The applicants are Goddard & Prechac, president and secretary of the Richelieu Cafe Company. Goddard was formerly partner of the Hotel de Paris, and Prechac is the proprietor of the Campi restaurant on San Fernando street. The application was referred to the City of Police Commission for investigation and report.

Will Recommend Franchise.

City Attorney Hansley was instructed by the Public Utilities Board yesterday to prepare the ordinance granting the Southern Pacific the right to construct spur tracks to turn-out at the Alhambra station, and instructed him to insert a clause requiring the removal of the third track in this street, that portion easterly from Sichel street within thirty days, and that portion westerly from Sichel to Los Angeles River, within ninety days.

Repaving of Main Street.

The Board of Public Works gave its approval yesterday to the plans of the City Engineer for the repaving of South Main street from Tenth street to Jefferson street. This is made necessary because of the recent widening of the street, which has been accomplished at an expense of about $1,000,000.

The crown of the street is to be raised six inches, and the gutters will be moved to conform to the new width; the asphalt will be removed and the base of concrete built up after which the entire roadway of sixty-eight feet will be recovered with asphalt.

Property owners asked that this be done at the expense of the city, but the board determines that the cost must be professed through the payment on the adjoining properties under the Vrooman act proceedings.

Contract Is Approved.

Approval was given by the Board of Public Works yesterday to the contract whereby the Aqueduct Power Bureau is to construct a power distributing line from the Saline Valley Salt Company, in the Saline Valley, easterly from Owens River, to the city of Los Angeles, at $1000 for this work, and to be its property after construction, but to be used exclusively for the transmission of aqueduct power for its own use and the supply of other concerns along the route as may wish to benefit therefrom.
